The Production Manual: Sequential
Hollywood North Mike Gasher, 2002

British Columbia's billion dollar film industry trails behind only those of California and New York. This book recounts the story of British Columbia's rapid rise from relative obscurity in the film world to its current status as Hollywood North. Gasher positions the industry as a model for commercial film production in the twenty-first century, one strongly shaped by a perception of cinema as a medium not of culture but of regional industrial development. He addresses the specific economic and geographic factors that contribute to the province's success, such as the low Canadian dollar and BC's proximity to Los Angeles. Hollywood North is an important book that brings into focus the tension between globalization and localization in the film industry.

World Film Locations: Vancouver Rachel Walls, 2013-01-01. World Film Locations: Vancouver highlights the work of such Canadian filmmakers who have received less attention than they merit whilst bringing insight into how so-called runaway productions from Hollywood use Vancouver to stand in for other locations from Seattle, USA to Lagos, Nigeria. Analyses of 38 different film scenes reveal the cinematic city in its myriad forms while spotlight essays provide insight into the creativity and contradictions of Vancouver's film industry throughout the ages. The essays examine the following topics: the masking of Vancouver's indigenous stories in filmic representations of the city; Australian screenwriter James Clavell's Vancouver set debut The Sweet and the Bitter; Sylvia Spring's Madeleine, the first female-directed feature in Canada; Jonathan Kaplan's The Accused, for which Jodie Foster won an Oscar; and the use of Vancouver locations in a number of US television crime series. World Film Locations: Vancouver offers new perspectives on the west coast city and in doing so sheds further light upon the relationship between the movies and the metropolis.

The Guerilla Film Makers Handbook
Genevieve Jolliffe, Chris Jones, 2004-04-27. The Guerilla Film Makers Handbook is easily the most helpful and honest book ever written about what it takes to make an independent movie.

Canadian Reference Sources Mary E. Bond, Martine M. Caron, 1996

This bibliography cites those Canadian and foreign reference sources that describe Canadian people, institutions, organizations, publications, art, literature, languages, and history. It lists books of a general nature as well as works in the disciplines of history and the humanities. These large divisions are then broken down by subject, genre, type of document, and province or territory. Titles of national, provincial, territorial, or regional interest are included in every subject area when available. The contents of the book are indexed four ways: by name, title, French subject, and English subject. And to facilitate browsing, the major reference books, those dealing with more than one subject or a large geographical region, are also cross-referenced. Two entries have been created for each bilingual document in order to provide access and bibliographical descriptions in both of Canada's official languages. Entries for unilingual works include citation in the language of the publication and a bilingual annotation The annotations are descriptive and provide information on the content arrangements and indexing of works the availability of non printformats previous editions and title changes and related works Canadian Reference Sources will be an invaluable referencetool for future scholars and researchers National Library of Medicine Audiovisuals Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.), Compiled from the Year Book of British Columbia and Manual of Provincial Information ,1897
