we can also see whole galaxies of concepts new insights and fragments large and small of partially or almost entirely completed but unpublished works Kierkegaard's Journals and Notebooks enables us to see the thinker in dialogue with his times and with himself Kierkegaard wrote his journals in a two column format one for his initial entries and the second for the extensive marginal comments that he added later This edition of the journals reproduces this format includes several photographs of original manuscript pages and contains extensive scholarly commentary on the various entries and on the history of the manuscripts being reproduced Volume 11 Part 1 and Volume 11 Part 2 present an exciting enlightening and enormously varied treasure trove of papers that were found carefully sorted and stored by Kierkegaard himself in his apartment after his death These papers many of which have never before been published in English provide a window into many different aspects of Kierkegaard's life and creativity Volume 11 Part 1 includes items from his earliest formative years through his extensive studies at the university and up to the publication of Either/Or These materials include Kierkegaard's studies in biblical exegesis his reading of theologians such as Schleiermacher and Baader his concern with aesthetic matters including a lengthy consideration of the Faust legend his first trial sermon delivered at the Pastoral Seminary his views on the burgeoning field of political journalism in the 1830s and a group of papers he titled The First Rudiments of Either/Or The Green Book Some Particulars that were not Used Men and Women of the Time George Washington Moon, 1891 Men and Women of the Time Victor Plarr, 1895 Catalog of the Theatre and Drama Collections New York Public Library. Music, the Market, and the Marvellous Tommaso Sabbatini, 2024-08-01 Music the Market and the Marvellous examines the French fairy play in the last third of the nineteenth century It is among the first book length studies on the genre the first in a language other than French and the first from a musicological perspective Sabbatini demonstrates that contrary to conventional wisdom the fairy play was still thriving during the fin de siècle giving rise to innovations such as composerly fairy plays and scientific fairy plays The plays the theatre industry and urban geography are discussed together as befits a commercial genre where the marvellous was shaped by the market Recovering this forgotten but once hugely influential repertoire provides an occasion to rethink generic taxonomies of Parisian theatre and the ontology of nineteenth century popular theatre Smoothing the Jew Jeffrey A. Marx, 2024-06-14 The turn of the nineteenth century in the United States saw the substantial influx of immigrants and a corresponding increase in anti immigration and nativist tendencies among longer settled Americans Jewish immigrants were often the object of such animosity being at once the object of admiration and anxiety for their perceived economic and social successes One result was their frequent depiction in derogatory caricatures on the stage and in print Smoothing the Jew investigates how Jewish artists of the time attempted to smooth over these demeaning portrayals by focusing on the first Jewish comic strip published in English Harry Hershfield's Abie the Agent Jeffrey Marx demonstrates how Hershfield created a Jewish protagonist who in part reassured nativists of the Jews ability to assimilate into American society while also encouraging immigrants and their children that over time they would be able to adopt American customs without losing their distinctly Jewish identity Cultures of Eschatology Veronika Wieser, Vincent Eltschinger, Johann Heiss, 2020-07-20 In all religions in the medieval West as in the East ideas about the past the present and the future were shaped by expectations related to the End The volumes Cultures of Eschatology explore the many ways apocalyptic thought and visions of the end intersected with the development of pre modern religio political communities with social changes and with the emergence of new intellectual and literary traditions The two volumes present a wide variety of case studies from the early Christian communities of Antiquity through the times of the Islamic invasion and the Crusades and up to modern receptions from the Latin West to the Byzantine Empire from South Yemen to the Hidden Lands of Tibetan Buddhism Examining apocalypticism messianism and eschatology in medieval Christian Islamic Hindu and Buddhist communities the contributions paint a multi faceted picture of End Time scenarios and provide their readers with a broad array of source material from different historical contexts The first volume Empires and Scriptural Authorities examines the formation of literary and visual apocalyptic traditions and the role they played as vehicles for defining a community's religious and political enemies The second volume Time Death and Afterlife focuses on key topics of eschatology death judgment afterlife and the perception of time and its end It also analyses modern readings and interpretations of eschatological concepts
