Walking In Wonder Resilience In Ministry:

Walking in Wonder George R. Sinclair, 2014-11-13 In ministry as in life we get knocked down Sometimes due to our folly or despair or fatigue or external opposition we stumble and fall How do we get back up again and again and again Resiliency the ability to bounce back is a gift of God Leaders are able to get up and follow the crucified and risen Lord when they are drawn when they are enchanted by the awesome mystery of the triune God Discipleship has never been easy The way staying on the narrow path that leads to abundant life is hard Today no less than the first disciples followers of Christ face an array of challenges not the least of which is disenchantment We had hoped he was the one to redeem Israel Luke 24 21 Seen through an Enlightenment lens disenchantment may be more acute and prevalent in our times but it is not new We walk our own Emmaus Road And when we keep walking when we follow the one who joins us on the Road eyes are opened hearts burn the one standing before us is recognized and we are sustained for the journey This collection of theological essays on ministry is an invitation to run and not be weary to walk and not faint Isa 40 31 by walking in wonder with the wholly other God who is near

A Handbook to Old Testament Exegesis William P. Brown, 2017-03-17 Designed for both Hebrew and non Hebrew students A Handbook to Old Testament Exegesis offers a fresh hands on introduction to exegesis of the Old Testament William P Brown begins not with the biblical text itself but with the reader helping students to identify their own interpretive lenses before engaging the biblical text Brown guides the student through a wide variety of interpretive approaches including modern methodologies feminist womanist Latino a queer postcolonial disability and ecological approaches alongside more traditional methods This allows students to critically reflect on themselves as bona fide interpreters While covering a wide range of biblical passages Brown also highlights two common biblical texts throughout the work to help show how each interpretive approach highlights different dimensions of the same texts Students will appreciate the value of an empathetic inquiry of Scripture that is both inclusive of others and textually in depth
