Sweet and succulent peaches are America's favorite fruit. In this book of original recipes, peaches maintain their starring role in desserts such as Sumptuous Peach Ice Cream, Peach Schnappy Crème Brûlée, and Peach Upside Down Cake with Rum Cream. But the fruit adds new character depth to other dishes: Buttermilk Peach Muffins and Blackberry Peach French Toast for breakfast; Peach Bruschetta and Chilled Peach Soup as appetizers; and Smoke Rubbed Skirt Steak with Peach Chive Butter and Spicy Pork Spareribs with Peach Glaze as main courses at dinner. A variety of recipes for beverages from Sparkling Peach Lemonade to Peach Crantini are included as refreshing accompaniments. Let's Grandparent JoAn

Vaughan, 2008-12-01 With baby boomers swelling the ranks of grandparents, there is a large and growing audience for Let's Grandparent. There are no other books on the market with the variety of content or perspective presented in this book. With its emphasis upon the crucial early years, it has special appeal for new grandparents and those with young grandchildren. During this honeymoon period, grandparents are typically enthusiastic about their new role and eager to learn all they can to make the most of time spent with their grandchildren. They want it to be fun, have an educational value, and strengthen close intimate bonds. Let's Grandparent shows them how to achieve these goals through an in-depth understanding of child development over four hundred kid-tested activities and tips for simple but satisfying experiences together. The author brings together her personal experience as an enthusiastic grandparent with her professional career in early childhood education to create this insightful and enjoyable guide. The intended audience for this book is grandparents with young grandchildren, especially targeted for a well-educated middle-class audience and grandparents of both men and women in their late middle age and early retirement years. Parents of young children who often are looking for ways to encourage closer connections between their children and their grandparents. Anyone wishing to form a close relationship with a young child, such as other relatives or mentors to young children. Participants of workshops and classes for grandparents. Early childhood education. National Association for the Education of Young Children and Association of Childhood Education International. The Best
