Fight for $15 David Rolf, 2015-04-07 Rolf shows that raising the minimum wage to 15 is both just and necessary lest the American dream of middle class prosperity turn into a nightmare David Cay Johnston Pulitzer Prize winning journalist Combining history economics and commonsense political wisdom The Fight for 15 makes a deeply informed case for a national fifteen dollars an hour minimum wage as the only practical solution to reversing America s decades long slide toward becoming a low wage nation Drawing both on new scholarship and on his extensive practical experiences organizing workers and grappling with inequality across the United States David Rolf president of SEIU 775 which waged the successful Seattle campaign for a fifteen dollar minimum wage offers an accessible explanation of middle out economics an emerging popular economic theory that suggests that the origins of prosperity in capitalist economies lie with workers and consumers not investors and employers A blueprint for a different and hopeful American future The Fight for 15 offers concrete tools ideas and inspiration for anyone interested in real change in our lifetimes The author s plainspoken approach and stellar scholarship illuminate in depth discussions about the deliberate policy decisions that began to decimate the middle class at the start of the 1980s as well as the insidious new ways in which big business continues to attack American workers today via stagnant wages rampant subcontracting unpredictable scheduling and other detrimental practices associated with the so called share economy Kirkus Reviews David Rolf has become the most successful advocate for raising wages in the twenty first century Andy Stern senior fellow at Columbia University s Richard Paul Richman Center for Business Law and Public Policy complexities of race class and gender inequalities in the modern day workplace and details the consequences of job insecurity and work schedules mismatched to family needs Throughout the text strategic recommendations are offered to improve the new economy Building a Culture of Health John A. Quelch,Emily C. Boudreau,2016-09-22 This ambitious volume sets out to understand how every company impacts public health and introduces a robust model rooted in organizational and scientific knowledge for companies committed to making positive contributions to health and wellness Focusing on four interconnected areas of corporate impact it not only discusses the business imperative of promoting a healthier society and improved living conditions worldwide but also provides guidelines for measuring a company s population health footprint Examples statistics and visuals showcase emerging corporate involvement in public health and underscore the business opportunities available to companies that invest in health The authors offer a detailed roadmap for optimizing health promoting actions in a rapidly evolving business and social climate across these core areas Planning and building a culture of health Consumer health How organizations affect the safety integrity and healthfulness of the products and services they offer to their customers and end consumers Employee health How organizations affect the health of their employees e g provision of employer sponsored health insurance workplace practices and wellness programs Community health How organizations affect the health of the communities in which they operate and do business Environmental Health How organizations environmental policies or lack thereof affect individual and population health Implementing and sustaining a culture of health Building a Culture of Health clarifies both a mission and a vision for use by MPH and MBA students in health management professors in schools of public health and business schools and business leaders and chief medical officers in health care and non health care businesses Rural Communities Cornelia Butler Flora,2018-03-05

Communities in rural America are a complex mixture of peoples and cultures ranging from miners who have been laid off in West Virginia to Laotian immigrants relocating in Kansas to work at a beef processing plant to entrepreneurs drawing up plans for a world class ski resort in California s Sierra Nevada Rural Communities Legacy and Change uses its unique Community Capitals framework to examine how America s diverse rural communities use their various capitals natural cultural human social political financial and built to address the modern challenges that face them Each chapter opens with a case study of a community facing a particular challenge and is followed by a comprehensive discussion of sociological concepts to be applied to understanding the case This narrative topical approach makes the book accessible and engaging for undergraduate students while its integrative approach provides them with a framework for understanding rural society based on the concepts and explanations of social science This fifth edition is updated throughout with 2013 census data and features new and expanded coverage of health and health care food systems and alternatives the effects of neoliberalism and globalization on rural communities as well as an expanded resource and activity section at the end of each chapter The City Is the Factory Miriam Greenberg,Penny Lewis,2017-06-06 Urban public spaces from the streets and squares of Buenos

Aires to Zuccotti Park in New York City have become the emblematic sites of contentious politics in the twenty first century As the contributors to The City Is the Factory argue this resurgent politics of the square is itself part of a broader shift in the primary locations and targets of popular protest from the workplace to the city This shift is due to an array of intersecting developments the concentration of people profit and social inequality in growing urban areas the attacks on and precarity faced by unions and workers movements and the sense of possibility and actual leverage afforded by local politics and the tactical use of urban space Thus the city from the town square to the banlieu is becoming like the factory of old a site of production and profit making as well as new forms of solidarity resistance and social reimagining We see examples of the city as factory in new place based political alliances as workers and the unemployed find common cause with right to the city struggles Demands for jobs with justice are linked with demands for the urban commons from affordable housing to a healthy environment from immigrant rights to urban citizenship and the right to streets free from both violence and racially biased policing The case studies and essays in The City Is the Factory provide descriptions and analysis of the form substance limits and possibilities of these timely struggles Contributors Melissa Checker Queens College and the Graduate Center of the City University of New York Daniel Aldana Cohen University of Pennsylvania Els de Graauw Baruch College City University of New York Kathleen Dunn Loyola University Chicago Shannon Gleeson Cornell University Miriam Greenberg University of California Santa Cruz Alejandro Grimson Universidad de San Mart n Argentina Andrew Herod University of Georgia Penny Lewis Joseph S Murphy Institute for Worker Education and Labor Studies City University of New York Stephanie Luce Joseph S Murphy Institute for Worker Education and Labor Studies City University of New York Lize Mogel artist and coeditor of An Atlas of Radical Cartography Gretchen Purser Maxwell School of Citizenship and Public Affairs Syracuse University

Barbed Wire Patrick Brantlinger, 2017-11-22 A call to transform the way we think about property this book examines how capitalism has from its origins sought to enclose or privatize the commons or land and other forms of property that had been viewed as communally owned and argues that neoliberal economic policies and the corporate takeovers of urban spaces prisons schools the mass media farms and natural resources have failed to serve the public interest A study of corporate globalization and the continuation of empire after the era of political decolonization it begins with the fencing of the West starting in the 1870s and moves to examine recent phenomena such as urbanization mass incarceration financialization and the treatment of people as commodities in the context of the longue dur e of land enclosures empire and capitalism Highlighting the threatened elimination of the public domain as a result of corporate efforts to privatize public utilities prisons schools forests seeds and just about everything else that can yield a profit Barbed Wire Capitalism and the Enclosure of the Commons asks what it would mean if instead of either private or public property our most fundamental conception of property were communal Would a redefinition of property from a community perspective lead us beyond the military industrial complex

pressures to address stakeholder demands from every direction consumers want socially responsible products employees want meaningful work investors now screen on environmental social and governance criteria clicktivists create social media storms over company missteps CEOs now realize that their companies must be social as well as commercial actors but stakeholder pressures often create trade offs with demands to deliver financial performance to shareholders How can companies respond while avoiding simple greenwashing or pinkwashing This book lays out a roadmap for organizational leaders who have hit the limits of the supposed win win of shared value to explore how companies can cope with real trade offs innovating around them or even thriving within them Suggesting that the shared value mindset may actually get in the way of progress bestselling author Sarah Kaplan shows in The 360 Corporation how trade offs rather than being confusing or problematic can actually be the source of organizational resilience and transformation

Disturbances in Heaven Ivan Franceschini, Kevin Lin, Nicholas Loubere, 2017-02-16 Labour and civil society are two fundamental components of international discussions concerning China today Whether it is the arrest of labour activists or rights lawyers the adoption of new industrial policies or the passing of draconian rules on non governmental organisations the events occurring in these areas in China often make global headlines At the same time in spite of the grave challenges for workers and activists the Chinese labour movement is witnessing significant developments with the occurrence of some of the largest strikes in decades All of this calls for more serious analysis from both scholars and practitioners as well for critical engagement with a broader global audience interested in forging international solidarity It is with these aims in mind that we have compiled this Made in China Yearbook 2016 Disturbances in Heaven a collection of original articles by both scholars and activists analysing the most important trends in Chinese labour and civil society over the past year With its unique blend of in depth scholarly work written in a direct accessible style this volume will allow readers to situate events and policies related to Chinese labour and civil society in a wider context and serve as an indispensable reference book for international activists practitioners and policy makers

Global Foodscapes Alistair Fraser, 2016-07-22 What we eat as well as how it is produced processed moved sold and used by our bodies seems to matter like never before Global Foodscapes takes on this topicality and asks readers to think about how we are all involved in the making of an odd and in many ways troubling and contested food economy It explores how food is conceived traded grown reared processed sold and consumed investigates what goes wrong along the way and assesses what diverse people around the world are doing to fix these faults The text uses a carefully crafted framework that explores the interaction of five forms of oppression and five means of resistance as they are worked out over five stages in the food economy It draws on case studies from around the world that illuminate key issues about food in today s world examines how oppression affects diverse people caught up in the food economy and highlights how individuals groups and institutions such as governments but also firms are trying to improve how we interact with the food system Global Foodscapes is a highly accessible and useful text for undergraduate students interested in the global food economy The global range of case studies examples and reference points as well as its original framework allows the text to speak to diverse audiences and generate debate about whether anything and if so what needs to be done about the food system we depend upon so heavily Additional materials such as suggested readings and discussion points help students consider the issues at hand and conduct initial and more detailed research on today s food economy

The Meritocracy Trap Daniel Markovits, 2019-09-10 This book flips your world upside down Daniel Markovits argues that meritocracy isn t a virtuous efficient system that rewards the best and brightest Instead it rewards middle class families who can afford huge investments in their children s education Frightening eye opening stuff The Times Books of the Year Even in the midst of runaway economic inequality and dangerous social division it remains an axiom of modern life that meritocracy reigns supreme and promises to open opportunity to all The idea that reward should follow ability and effort is so entrenched in our psyche that even as society divides itself at almost every turn all sides can be heard repeating meritocratic notions Meritocracy cuts to the heart of who we think we are But what if both up and down the social ladder meritocracy is a sham Today meritocracy has become exactly what it was conceived to resist a mechanism for the concentration and dynastic transmission of wealth and privilege across generations Upward mobility has become a fantasy and the embattled middle classes are now more likely to sink into the working poor than to rise into the professional elite At the same time meritocracy now ensnares even those who manage to claw their way to the top requiring rich adults to work with crushing intensity exploiting their expensive educations in order to extract a return All this is not the result of deviations or retreats from meritocracy but rather stems directly from meritocracy s successes This is the radical argument that The Meritocracy Trap prosecutes with rare force comprehensive research and devastating persuasion Daniel Markovits a law professor trained in philosophy and economics is better placed than most to puncture one of the dominant ideas of our age Having spent his life at elite universities he knows from the inside the corrosive system we are trapped within as well as how we can take the first steps towards a world that might afford us both prosperity and dignity
