Inserting Batteries into the Remote Control

Insert two size AA batteries(supplied) by matching the and on the battery to the positive (+) and negative (-) inside the battery compartment.

2 Connecting Your TV

• Review the following chart to determine which diagram to use to connect the components to your system.

For these components		See remote ctrl
		F

• For the "Cables Required" chart that appears with the diagram to determine which cables you'll need, see step 2 to provide extra accessories, such as cables and adapters, depending on the components you plan to connect.

• Turn off and unplug all components before making connections. If you are connecting a digital cable box, you'll need a special for-directional splitter that's compatible with your cable box. Contact your cable provider.

Making Video Connections

Your TV includes several types of video inputs. Use the inputs that are available on your components that provide the best video performance as described in step 2.

Connector type	Notes
HDMI	High Definition Multimedia Interface
Component video
S-VIDEO
Composite video
RF (Antenna)

Additional Connections

The best video performance comes from your digital video components using either digital optical or digital coaxial video connections. Depending on which components are in your system, you may need to complete additional connections. For example, if you have a satellite receiver, you'll need to connect the satellite receiver. If you have an A/V receiver, you'll need to connect speakers.

Note

The receiver's program logic will prevent the use of connections other than those allowed for each connection. For more information, see the receiver's manual.

Activating CableCARD™ Service

Before you use the Digital Audio™ service, you need to turn the CableCARD™ supplied by your cable provider on and activate the service, as described in step 3.

Note

Turning the CableCARD™ service on may require a password change on your card and on the TV.

3 Running Initial Setup

- Press POWER to turn on the TV. The Initial Setup screen appears.
- Press 1 or 2 to select the language display language. Then press OK. The message "Start set-up program now?" appears.
- Press 1 or 2 to select "Yes". Then press OK.

Auto Program automatically scans a list of available channels. When finished, the found channels are listed in the display.

To use Auto Program again at a later time:

- Use the Auto Program button in the operating instructions.

To add individual digital channels:

- Use the Digital Channel button in the operating instructions.

Note

Auto Program may take up to 10 minutes of time to complete. A program list is displayed while the channel list is being created.

4 Programming the Remote Control

The remote control is preset to operate Sony brand video equipment.

Sony Equipment	Programmable Code Number
Video/DVD	401 (Sony Dream System)
SAT Cable	401 (Sony Satellite Receiver)

If you have video equipment other than Sony brand that you want to control with the TV remote control, use the following procedure to program the remote control.

Note

The receiver must have correct channel capacity numbers to control the receiver.

Using the code list below, find the three-digit code number for the manufacturer of your equipment. All codes that are code number is listed, even the number listed first.

- Press the POWER button on the TV. Press the 401 button on the remote control. Press the 401 button on the remote control. Press the 401 button on the remote control.
- Press the POWER button on the TV. Press the 401 button on the remote control. Press the 401 button on the remote control. Press the 401 button on the remote control.
- Press the three-digit code number in the code number dial using the 10 buttons.
- Press OK button.
- Tested. If the code number works, use the TV's remote control to control the equipment and press POWER button on the TV to turn the TV on. If the code number does not work, repeat steps 1-4. If it is successful, the programming is complete. If not, try using the other codes listed for that manufacturer.

Note

- If a code that you wish to use is listed as "not working" for your equipment, try using the code listed for your equipment.
- If you still can't control your equipment, contact your cable provider for more information.
