Part II- Document Analysis

Background reading: In the summer of 1914 Europe went to war with itself. It was a war that many expected to be short. In fact, it lasted more than four long, terrible years, taking the lives of millions of combatants and civilians. In some cases, entire high school graduating classes of young English, French, German, and Russian soldiers died fighting one another along the Western and Eastern Fronts. In this DBQ you will investigate several of the causes that led to this tragedy.

Directions: Look at each document given to your group to answer the questions
