New Directions in South African Tourism Geographies Jayne M. Rogerson, Gustav Visser, 2019-09-26 This book provides an overview of innovative and new directions being chartered in South African tourism geographies. Within the context of global change, the volume explores different facets and different geographies of tourism. Key themes under scrutiny include the sharing economy, the changing accommodation service sector, touring poverty, tourism and innovation, tourism and climate change, threats to sustainability, inclusive tourism, and a number of studies which challenge the present mindedness of much tourism geographical scholarship. The 18 chapters range across urban and rural landscapes in South Africa with sectoral studies which include adventure tourism, coastal tourism, cruise tourism, nature based tourism, sports tourism, and wine tourism. Finally, the volume raises a number of policy and planning issues in the global South, in particular relating to sustainability, local economic development, and poverty reduction. Outlining the impact of tourism expansion in South Africa and suggesting future research directions, this stimulating book is a valuable resource for geographers as well as researchers and students in the field of tourism studies.

The Roots of Engagement Moisés Arce, Michael S. Hendricks, Marc S. Polizzi, 2022 The T a Mar a project by Southern Copper Peru is one of the most protracted and violent resource conflicts in Peru. It began in 2009 when Southern presented its first environmental impact assessment to develop an open pit copper mine near the Valle del Tambo Tambo Valley area in the southern region of Arequipa. Twelve years later, almost every mobilizing strategy and state response typical of protracted resource conflicts has taken place in T a Mar a, including

A Scientific Bibliography of the Drakensberg, Maloti and Adjacent Lowlands Rodney Moffett, 2021-04-19 This bibliography includes scientific articles on the Drakensberg, Maloti, and Adjacent Lowlands published between 1808 and 2019. Although focussing on material appearing in accredited journals, there is such a wealth of information in the form of unpublished yet traceable reports, documents, presentations, and dissertations, these are also included. The bibliography has two parts: a complete list arranged alphabetically and the same references arranged in 33 different disciplines. These range from Palaeobotany with 17 entries to Rock Art with 502 entries.

Fighting Global Neo-Extractivism Jasper Finkeldey, 2022-08-02 Fighting Global Neo Extractivism. Fossil Free Social Movements in South Africa analyzes social struggles over damaging new fossil fuel projects in the Global South with a focus on South Africa. Africa's biggest fossil fuel emitter, fossil fuel extraction in South Africa has reached a new accelerated phase in which the fossil fuel frontier is moving beyond historical sacrifice zones into non traditional spaces such as conservation parks and middle class neighbourhoods, provoking fervent opposition from grassroots activists. This book examines campaigns such as Frack Free South Africa and Save our iMfolozi Wilderness, viewing them as struggles against neo extractivism driven by the state and industry. Through a series of detailed case studies, it highlights the shaping of mobilisation patterns by prior land use practices and the capacity to mobilize different social groups across race and class. Developing the notion of the fossil fuel frontier as the material and political boundary that activists in South Africa and elsewhere in the world render visible this volume provides a theoretical framework to understanding global mobilization patterns This timely and impassioned book will appeal to students and researchers interested in a range of subjects including environmentalism social movements political ecology and development studies Environmental Justice, Popular Struggle and Community Development Harley,

Anne, Scandrett, Eurig, 2019-06-05 Struggles for environmental justice involve communities mobilising against powerful forces which advocate development driven increasingly by neoliberal imperatives In doing so communities face questions about their alliances with other groups working with outsiders and issues of class race ethnicity gender worker community and settler indigenous relationships Written by a wide range of international scholars and activists contributors explore these dynamics and the opportunities for agency and solidarity They critique the practice of community development professionals academics trade union organisers social movements and activists and inform those engaged in the pursuit of justice as community development and environment interact Bats of Southern and Central Africa Ara Monadjem, Peter John

Taylor, Fenton (Woody) Cotterill, M. Corrie Schoeman, 2020-06-01 This revised edition of a book first published in 2010 supplements the original account of the 116 bat species then known to be found in Southern and Central Africa with an additional eight newly described species The chapters on evolution biogeography ecology and echolocation have been updated citing dozens of recently published papers The book covers the latest systematic and taxonomic studies ensuring that the names and relationships of bats in this new edition reflect current scientific knowledge The species accounts provide descriptions measurements and diagnostic characters as well as detailed information about the distribution habitat roosting habits foraging ecology and reproduction of each species The updated species distribution maps are based on 116 recorded localities A special feature of the 2010 publication was the mode of identification of families genera and species by way of character matrices rather than the more generally used dichotomous keys Since then these matrices have been tested in the field and where necessary slightly altered for this edition New photographs fill in gaps and updated sonograms aid with bat identification in acoustic surveys The bibliography which now contains more than 700 entries will be an invaluable aid to students and scientists wishing to track down original research A Scientific Bibliography of the Far Northern

Drakensberg Rodney Moffett, 2023-04-14 This Scientific Bibliography of the Far Northern Drakensberg is a continuation by the Afromontane Research Unit of the University of the Free State ARU to document published and other similar works on the mountains of the summer rainfall area of South Africa It follows A Scientific Bibliography of the Drakensberg Maloti and Adjacent Lowlands which was published in 2020 Moffett 2020 and which covered the area between the North Eastern Cape and the North Eastern Free State The current work extends this northward by including articles and publications dating back to 1875 E Cohen on the Lydenburg goldfields reaching as far as the Wolkberg and Woodbush near Tzaneen in Limpopo Province Figure 1 shows the boundary of the area covered and although referred to as the Far Northern Drakensberg in this work it is identical to that described as the LMEE Limpopo Mpumalanga Eswatini Escarpment by Clarke et al 2022 Although slightly separate from the lower escarpment the mountainous Barberton and adjacent Eswatini area as well as the Leolo Mountains in eastern Sekhukhuneland are also included Details on how the boundary in figure 1 was determined are given in Clark et al 2022 Bibliographies on two further ranges in the summer rainfall area viz the Magaliesberg in Gauteng province and the Soutpansberg in Limpopo province are to be the subject of future compilations

Eskom Sylvvy Jaglin, Alain Dubresson, 2016-08-16 Africa's leading producer of electricity Eskom Holdings SOC Ltd is also a vertically integrated monopoly owned by the South African state This national champion was shaken in 2008 when it was obliged to introduce load shedding or rolling blackouts and again in late 2014 Trying to understand how and why one of the iconic pillars of South African state capitalism is now in distress the authors of this book argue that the so called electricity crisis is in fact a public monopoly crisis Moving beyond technical aspects they explore the relationship between state power and Eskom before during and after apartheid From this perspective they suggest that the current technical and financial troubles of this public utility are illustrative of the weakening of its technopolitical regime of how national institutions have governed Eskom's technological development and of the pursuit of political goals in the production of electrical power Without a clear industrial strategy during the 2000s Eskom became a powerful tool of Broad Black Economic Empowerment as well as a neopatrimonial system which generates profits captured by the ruling party As a result crisis in Eskom shakes the whole political edifice Inefficient and its finances increasingly under scrutiny this state owned enterprise's existence as a monopolistic public utility is regularly a subject of debate The authors discuss the ambivalent role of Eskom in the national energy transition policy and whether solutions point in the direction of de-integrating this public monopoly and allowing its current technopolitical regime to enter a planned or natural decline

The Palgrave Handbook of Africa and the Changing Global Order Samuel Ojo Oloruntoba, Toyin Falola, 2021-11-22 This handbook fills a large gap in the current knowledge about the critical role of Africa in the changing global order By connecting the past present and future in a continuum that shows the paradox of existence for over one billion people the book underlines the centrality of the African continent to global knowledge production the global economy global security and global creativity Bringing together perspectives from top Africa scholars it actively dispels myths of the continent as just a passive recipient of external influences presenting instead an image of an active global agent that astutely projects soft power Unlike previous handbooks this book offers an eclectic mix of historical contemporary and interdisciplinary approaches that allow for a more holistic view of the many aspects of Africa's relations with the world

Biodiversity and Chemotaxonomy Kishan Gopal Ramawat, 2019-11-10 Plant classifications are based on morphological characters and it is difficult particularly in small plants and grasses to identify these below generic level on the basis of these characters using a dissecting microscope Plant species have intra and inter specific variation in secondary metabolites which can be utilized as marker compounds for identification and classification of plants Secondary metabolites are produced as a result of primary metabolism and the production of these compounds not only involves several genes but also it is an energy dependent process Hence these products cannot be considered as insignificant for the plant and the environment Modern tools of molecular biology and secondary metabolites present in them can definitively decide about classification of plants Absence of correct identification of plant is associated to many problems of resource utilization Due to wide availability of these tools interest has revived in systematics and correct classification of plants based on these parameters for their sustainable utilization and resource management The purpose of this book is to assess the potential of phytochemical and molecular tools in the systematic and classification of plants The topics covered include species concept barcoding and phylogenetic analysis chemotaxonomy use of polyketides carotenes cuticular wax volatile oils biodiversity of corals metazoans Ruta and Echinocereus It provides comprehensive and broad subject based reviews useful for students teachers researchers and all others interested in the field The field has been kept wide and general to accommodate the wide ranging topics This book will be useful to agriculturists chemists botanists industrialists and those involved in planning of crop plants

Hydrofeminist Thinking With Oceans Tamara Shefer, Vivienne Bozalek, Nike Romano, 2023-12-19 Hydrofeminist Thinking with Oceans brings together authors who are thinking in with and through the spaces of ocean's and beaches in South African contexts to make alternative knowledges towards a justice to come and flourishing at a planetary level Primary scholarly locations for this work include feminist new materialist and post humanist thinking and specifically locates itself within hydrofeminist thinking Together with a foreword by Astrida Neimanis the chapters in this book explore both land and water with oceans as powerfully political spaces globally and locally entangled in the violences of settler colonialism land dispossession slavery transnational labour exploitation extractivism and omnicides South Africa is a productive space to engage in such scholarship While there is a growing body of literature that works within and across disciplines on the sea and bodies of water to think critically about the damages of centuries of colonisation and continued extractivist capitalism there remains little work that explores this burgeoning thinking in global Southern and more particularly South African contexts South African histories of colonisation slavery and more recently apartheid which are saturated in the oceans are only recently being explored through oceanic logics This volume offers valuable Southern contributions and rich situated narratives to such hydrofeminist thinking It also brings diverse and more marginal knowledges to bear on the project of generating imaginative alternatives to hegemonic colonial and patriarchal logics in the academy and elsewhere While primarily located in a South African context the volume speaks well to globalised concerns for justice and environmental challenges both in human societies and in relation to other species and planetary crises The chapters which will be of interest to scholars activists and other civil society stakeholders share inspiring rich examples of diverse scholarship activism and art in these contexts extending international scholarship that thinks in on with ocean s littoral zones and bodies of water The book offers ethico political perspectives on the role of research in ocean governance policy development and collective decision making for ecological justice This book is suitable for students and scholars of post qualitative feminist new materialist embodied arts based and hydrofeminist methods in education environmental humanities and the social sciences

The Blue Economy in Sub-Saharan Africa

DONALD L. SPARKS, 2021-06-16 The blue economy comprising coastal and marine resources offers vast benefits for sub Saharan Africa of the 53 countries and territories in the region 32 are coastal states there are 13 million sq km of maritime zones more than 90% of the region s exports and imports come by sea and the African Union hails the blue economy as the new frontier of African renaissance Despite their importance the region s coastal and marine resources have been neither fully appreciated nor fully utilized They are only now being recognized as being key to Africa s potential prosperity As the region grows it has in general not taken adequate safeguards to protect these valuable resources That is partly because some of the problems pollution for example are regional and know no borders All too often short term gains are made at the expense of the long term overfishing for example This book provides for the first time a study of the constraints and opportunities the blue economy offers for sub Saharan Africa It includes an introduction and overview sectoral analyses including tourism fisheries mineral resources culture shipping and maritime safety country case studies and analyses of regional and international efforts towards better coastal zone and marine management
