Curriculum Development for Northern Sotho in Journalism Studies Dorothy Nyembe, 2016 The study focuses on curriculum development for northern sotho in journalism studies It is a case study at a university in Gauteng province The course Journalism studies offers sotho North level 1 130T as an additional subject which is the third language taught to train students to communicate

Prospectus 2016 34 The primary aim of the study was to determine if students would be able to communicate effectively in Sotho North level 1 at the end of the year The main problem focused on in this study was the writing skills The researcher used a moderate social constructivist lens to emphasise the role of caregiving in communication and equipment of the students when learning sotho North level 1 Tailoring the curriculum to the students needs forms part of the lecturers endeavour to support the students The study investigated the causes of the challenges the participating journalism students experienced The findings of scholars and their recommendations highlight that time allocation for learning a third or second language should be extended to a longer period in order to ensure the needed basic communication skills
