Psalm 23 in the Classroom Wayne McCamey,2022-09-08 When I became a principal my teachers gifted me with a book written by Philip Keller who wrote a book about taking care of his own flock of sheep Treating sheep with kindness and always watching for their safety is not unlike being a parent teacher or school principal doing the same activities for children or students in their care Respected teachers voices are remembered and loved long after students graduate and have their own families Psalm 23 in the Classroom shares moments of kindness and difficulties that arise when working with students teachers and parents A shepherd and a teacher must have similar management skills for success to be achieved The last part of Psalm 23 in the Classroom contains eight biology lessons that were fun to teach because students were highly interested in the lessons The lesson comparing evolution to creation lasted for three days One day was spent on evolution theories one day on the biblical creation and one day on scientific information mentioned in scripture hundreds and even thousands of years before modern science confirmed what the Bible already explained The last lessons were about mankind s reproductive systems These lessons were taught for sixteen years without a problem from parents administrators or the Six O clock News

When I became an elementary principal these same lessons were taught to grade 6 students without problems My favorite saying to students was Were the different components of male and female reproduction systems an accident of nature or were they planned to complement each other For Kids—Putting God on Your Guest List (2nd Edition) Rabbi Jeffrey K. Reflections of a Wyoming Shepherd on the 23Rd Psalm Patricia McClaflin Booher,2009-03-20 The Great War was over and families were reunited The McClaflin family began life afresh on a homestead in the northern plains of Wyoming clearing off sagebrush and tilling virgin soil Childhood memories of caring for orphan lambs have made an indelible imprint on the stories that have been penned to the pages of this beloved story of courage and endurance The authors lifelong journey of walking with the Heavenly Shepherd of the 23rd Psalm is the spark that kindles the flame of compassion and caring the reader will experience from the stories of family and the love of life The death of a parent is a common experience until that season of life is within your family Layer upon layer circumstances of life hopefully will mold us into persons with a lot of horse sense better known in todays society as common sense and equip us with a great deal of integrity to pass on to future generations Or we can choose to live a life of despair and each of us makes that choice Colliding with a huge snowplow in a brutal storm in the middle of Shirley Basin in the desolate parts of Wyoming would forever change the life of this author The peace and calm of knowing the protection of the Heavenly Shepherd depicted in the 23rd Psalm while waiting for an ambulance coming from a long distance has given the promise of hope and a future Sunrises and sunsets would forever take on a brighter hue thus allowing Patricia the desire and ability to pen much loved stories of family friends and the Heavenly Shepherd found in this novel Journeys with Jesus Lois Keffer,2004 13 week multiage summer program allows kids to shootings and natural disasters ministry leaders are first on the scene to care for the people Churches and worshiping bodies are frequently searching for ways to participate in social justice to stand in solidarity with their neighbors We often find ourselves speechless when we learn that people within our own pews are silently living without support for mental illness or abusive relationships Breath for the Breathless offers liturgies in response to the difficult seasons we face These worship services and prayers are fully prepared so that pastors Christian educators chaplains and ministry leaders can be equipped with the liturgy they need in a crisis This is the resource faith leaders want on their shelf so they can spend more time on pastoral care and less time on worship preparation May these words help faith communities pause unite and catch their breath
