October 10, 2050

Dr. Anderson Lee

Specialist Clinic

456 Expertise Avenue

Care City, WV 87654

Dear Dr. Lee,

I am writing to refer our mutual patient, Mrs. Karen James, to your esteemed care for further evaluation and management of her ongoing musculoskeletal concerns. Mrs. James is a 58-year-old female who has been experiencing persistent pain and stiffness in her joints, which has significantly affected her daily activities.

Despite initial treatment approaches, including physical therapy and medication, her symptoms have shown minimal improvement. Considering your expertise in rheumatology, I believe that a more specialized assessment and intervention plan would be beneficial.

MRI reports and blood test results are enclosed with this letter to provide you with preliminary information regarding Mrs. James's condition. She is highly motivated to find an effective solution and is looking forward to your specialist insights.
