With these words President Clinton contributed to Long Island University's three day celebration of that momentous event in American history when Robinson became the first African American to play major league baseball This new book includes presentations from that celebration especially chosen for their fresh perspectives and illuminating insights A heady mix of journalism scholarship and memory offers a presentation that far transcends the retelling of just another sports story Readers get a true sense of the social conditions prior to Robinson's arrival in the major leagues and the ripple effect his breakthrough had on the nation Anecdotes enliven the story and offer more than the usual larger than life portrait of Robinson A melange of contributors from the sports world academia and journalism some of Robinson's contemporaries Dodger fans and historians of the era all sharing a passion for baseball reflect on issues of sports race and the dramatic transformation of the American social and political scene in the last fifty years In addition to the editors the list of authors includes Peter Golenbock one of America's preeminent sports biographers and author of Bums The Brooklyn Dodgers 1947-1957 Tom Hawkins the first African American to star in basketball at Notre Dame and currently Vice President for Communications of the Los Angeles Dodgers Bill Mardo a former writer for the New York Daily Worker Roger Rosenblatt teacher at the Southampton Campus of Long Island University and author of numerous articles plays and books Peter Williams author of a study of sports myth The Sports Immortals and Samuel Regalado author of Viva Baseball Latin Major Leaguers and Their Special Hunger Thank You, Jackie Robinson Barbara Cohen, 1997-04 A fatherless white boy who shares with an old African American man an enthusiasm for the Brooklyn Dodgers and first baseman Jackie Robinson takes a ball autographed by Jackie to his elderly friend's deathbed The Court-Martial of Jackie Robinson Michael Lee Lanning, 2020-02-21 Eleven years before Rosa Parks resisted going to the back of the bus a young black second lieutenant hungry to fight Nazis in Europe refused to move to the back of a U S Army bus in Texas and found himself court martialed The defiant soldier was Jack Roosevelt Robinson already in 1944 a celebrated athlete in track and football and in a few years the man who would break Major League Baseball's color barrier This was the pivotal moment in Jackie Robinson's pre MLB career Had he been found guilty he would not have been the man who broke baseball's color barrier Had the incident never happened he would've gone overseas with the Black Panther tank battalion and who knows what after that Having survived this crucible of unjust prosecution as an American soldier Robinson already a talented multisport athlete became the ideal player to integrate baseball This is a dramatic story deeply engaging and enraging It's a Jackie Robinson story and a baseball story but it is also an army story as well as an American story Tools for Matching Readers to Texts Heidi Anne E.
