Perspectives on Henri Lefebvre Jenny Bauer, Robert Fischer, 2018-12-03 The articles take a decidedly interdisciplinary look at the opus of the French philosopher sociologist and pioneer of spatial analysis Henri Lefebvre 1901 1991 His works are reflected upon from theoretical and practical perspectives by authors from various fields literature history philosophy sociology ethnology closely examining text references from Lefebvre The Urban Revolution Henri Lefebvre,2003 Originally published in 1970 The Urban Revolution marked Henri Lefebvre s first sustained critique of urban society a work in which he pioneered the use of semiotic structuralist and poststructuralist methodologies in analyzing the development of the urban environment Although it is widely considered a foundational book in contemporary thinking about the city The Urban Revolution has never been translated into English until now This first English edition deftly translated by Robert Bononno makes available to a broad audience Lefebvre s sophisticated insights into the urban dimensions of modern life Lefebvre begins with the premise that the total urbanization of society is an inevitable process that demands of its critics new interpretive and perceptual approaches that recognize the urban as a complex field of inquiry Dismissive of cold modernist visions of the city particularly those embodied by rationalist architects and urban planners like Le Corbusier Lefebvre instead articulates the lived experiences of individual inhabitants of the city In contrast to the ideology of urbanism and its reliance on commodification and bureaucratization the capitalist logic of market and state Lefebvre conceives of an urban utopia characterized by self determination individual creativity and authentic social relationships A brilliantly conceived and theoretically rigorous investigation into the realities and possibilities of urban space The Urban Revolution remains an essential analysis of and guide to the nature of the city New Urban Spaces Neil Brenner,2019 The urban condition is today being radically transformed Urban restructuring is accelerating new urban spaces are being consolidated and new forms of urbanization are crystallizing In New Urban Spaces Neil Brenner argues that understanding these mutations of urban life requires not only concrete research but new theories of urbanization To this end Brenner proposes an approach that breaks with inherited conceptions of the urban as a bounded settlement unit the city or the metropolis and explores the multiscalar constitution and periodic rescaling of the capitalist urban fabric Drawing on critical geopolitical economy and spatialized approaches to state theory Brenner offers a paradigmatic account of how rescaling processes are transforming inherited formations of urban space and their variegated consequences for emergent patterns and pathways of urbanization The book also advances an understanding of critical urban theory as radically revisable key urban concepts must be continually reinvented in relation to the relentlessly mutating worlds of urbanization they aspire to illuminate Space, Urban Politics, and Everyday Life Tilman Schwarze,2023-11-18 This Book develops a novel and innovative methodological framework for operationalising Henri Lefebvre s work for empirical research on the U S city Building on ethnographic research on Chicago s South Side Tilman Schwarze explores the current situation of urbanisation and urban life in the U S city through a critical reading and application of Lefebvre s writings on space everyday life the urban the state and difference Focusing on territorial stigmatisation public housing transformation and urban redevelopment this book makes an important contribution to critical urban scholarship foregrounding the relevance and applicability of Henri Lefebvre's work for geographical and sociological research on urban politics and everyday life Havana Susan Fitzgerald, 2022-05-01 Following the crisis of the Special Period Cuba promoted urban agriculture throughout its towns and cities to address food sovereignty and security Through the adoption of state recommended design strategies these gardens have become places of social and economic exchange throughout Cuba This book maps the lived experiences surrounding three urban farms in Havana to construct a deeper understanding about the everyday life of this city Using narratives and drawings this research uncovers these sites as places where education intimacy entrepreneurism wellbeing and culture are interwoven alongside food production Henri Lefebvre's latent work on rhythm analysis is used as a research method to capture the everyday beats particular to Havana surrounding these sites This book maps the many ways in which these spaces shift power away from the state to become places that are co created by the community to serve as a crucial hinge point between the ongoing collapse of the city and its future wellbeing Urban China Reframed Wing-Shing Tang, Kam Wing Chan, 2021-06-21 Given China's rapid economic growth and massive urbanization no one in the world can ignore what is happening in urban China This book is a critical review of existing urban China research which is found wanting due to the decontextualized use of theories and concepts developed in the West Urban China Reframed A Critical Appreciation consists of epistemological theoretical and methodological contributions to remedy these limitations by focusing on a number of relevant topics First models are widely employed in any study and China nowadays has invoked models like city system zones and global city in socio economic development How to interpret them in terms of knowledge production in a strong party state Second given the global prevalence of neoliberalism it is an important debate whether neoliberalism is applicable to China Third what is urban ideology in China How to contextualize it Are debates about the differentiation between the city and urbanization relevant to China Fourth massive rural urban migration in China has taken place within its mega rural urban dual system an institution that has persisted since the 1950s How does it manifest nowadays Fifth has the town country divide in China like in the West disappeared If not how can one interpret China's town country relations within the politics and administration of the Chinese state Sixth how to decipher the territorial development in the Pearl River Delta the world's factory under the auspices of the state The collection of essays in this volume contributes to the theoretical understanding of urban China The chapters in this book were originally published in the Eurasian Geography and Economics The Routledge Handbook of Henri Lefebvre, The City and Urban Society Michael E. Leary-Owhin, John P. McCarthy, 2019-11-21 The Routledge Handbook of Henri Lefebvre The City and Urban Society is the first edited book to focus on Lefebvre's urban theories and ideas from a global perspective making use of recent theoretical and empirical developments with contributions from eminent as well as emergent global scholars The book provides international comparison of Lefebvrian research and theoretical conjecture and aims to engage with and critique Lefebvre's ideas in the context of contemporary urban social and environmental upheavals to use Lefebvre's spatial triad as a research tool as well as a point of departure for the adoption of ideas such as differential space to reassess Lefebvre's ideas in relation to nature and global environmental sustainability and to highlight how a Lefebvrian approach might assist in mobilising resistance to the excesses of globalised neoliberal urbanism. The volume draws inspiration from Lefebvre's key texts The Production of Space, Critique of Everyday Life and The Urban Revolution and includes a comprehensive introduction and concluding chapter by the editors. The conclusions highlight implications in relation to increasing spatial inequalities, increasing diversity of needs including those of migrants, more authoritarian approaches and asymmetries of access to urban space. Above all, the book illustrates the continuing relevance of Lefebvre's ideas for contemporary urban issues and shows via global case studies how resistance to spatial domination by powerful interests might be achieved. The Handbook helps the reader navigate the complex terrain of spatial research inspired by Lefebvre. In particular, the Handbook focuses on the series of struggles globally for the right to the city and the collision of debates around the urban age, cityism and planetary urbanisation. It will be a guide for graduate and advanced undergraduate teaching and a key reference for academics in the fields of Human Geography, Sociology, Political Science, Applied Philosophy, Planning, Urban Theory and Urban Studies. Practitioners and activists in the field will also find the book of relevance.

Current Archaeology, 1970 Evil Paradises Mike Davis, Daniel Bertrand Monk, 2007. Evil Paradises shows us the face of conspicuous consumption gone mad, exploring new developments that are being built from extreme global wealth. Although the case studies which are drawn from around the world read like science fiction, they are in fact all real. They include a gilded archipelago of private islands in Dubai and a 2 million acre private national park owned by Ted Turner. With an introduction by Mike Davis and contributions from Rebecca Solnit, Jon Wiener and others, this collection reveals the dark side of modern capitalism and the current building boom. Industrial Design Magazine, 1982 Comptes rendus du 18. This thematic reader helps develop writers by exposing them to readings that are immediately relevant to their lives as students, consumers and citizens and seeking to awaken social consciousness and encourage involvement. Rich with discussion questions and writing prompts focusing on critical reading and rhetoric, this text explores not only how society is changing but also how citizens can participate in changing it in the interests of social justice, peace and preservation of communities and the environment. Freedom and Reform in Latin America Fredrick B.
