

AMERICAN GOVERNMENT: CHAPTER 3 SECTION 4 REVIEW

1. How did the relationship between the English monarch and the American colonies change when George III came to the throne? The colonies had become accustomed to practice of using Parliament, but George III was determined to restore the power of the monarchy.
2. According to the Stamp Act Congress, why were the colonists frustrated the authority of Parliament? In the Stamp Act Congress, the delegates concluded that, according to their structure, they were not under the authority of the king; they were not under the authority of Parliament because they were not represented in Parliament.
3. What did John Jay and the colonists present in the Declaration of Rights and Sentiments? The colonists presented a charge before the Declaration of Rights and Sentiments.
4. What exciting event happened in the Philadelphia Act? The First Continental Congress made a response to the Philadelphia Act.
5. How did the Second Continental Congress become politically powerful? The Second Continental Congress assumed political power by supporting an army against George Washington as commander in chief and organizing militia.
6. What were the main articles of Parliament's Prohibitory Act? The Prohibitory Act shut all trade between the colonies and England and effectively removed the colonies from the "King's Protection."
7. What provided a constitution for independence for the Second Continental Congress? The May 1776 act provided a resolution for independence to the Second Continental Congress.
8. What was responsible for drafting the Declaration of Independence? Thomas Jefferson was responsible for drafting the Declaration of Independence.
9. What was the date for the adoption of the Declaration of Independence? On July 4, 1776, the Declaration of Independence was adopted.
10. What characteristics are expressed in the Declaration of Independence? Acknowledging that God is the Creator and the Sovereign of the universe; recognizing God as the Supreme Judge of men and nations.
11. Why does everyone say the Continental Congress passed the Declaration of Independence? The Continental Congress decided to sever foreign relations.
