History Chauncey Monte-Sano, Susan De La Paz, Mark Felton, 2014 Although the Common Core and C3 Framework highlight literacy and inquiry as central goals for social studies they do not offer guidelines assessments or curriculum resources This practical guide presents six research tested historical investigations along with all corresponding teaching materials and tools that have improved the historical thinking and argumentative writing of academically diverse students Each investigation integrates reading analysis planning composing and reflection into a writing process that results in an argumentative history essay Primary sources have been modified to allow struggling readers access to the material Web links to original unmodified primary sources are also provided along with other sources to extend investigations The authors include sample student essays from each investigation to illustrate the progress of two different learners and explain how to support students development Each chapter includes these helpful sections Historical Background Literacy Practices

Lesson Plans and Materials Book Features Integrates literacy and inquiry with core U S history topics Emphasizes argumentative writing a key requirement of the Common Core Offers explicit guidance for instruction with classroom ready materials Provides primary sources for differentiated instruction Explains a curriculum appropriate for students who struggle with reading as well as more advanced readers Models how to transition over time from more explicit instruction to teacher coaching and greater student independence The tools this book provides from graphic organizers to lesson plans to the accompanying documents demystify the writing process and offer a sequenced path toward attaining proficiency From the Foreword by Sam Wineburg co author of Reading Like a Historian Assuming literate practice to be at the core of history learning and historical practice the authors provide actual units of history instruction that can be immediately applied to classroom teaching These units make visible how a cognitive apprenticeship approach enhances history and historical literacy learning and ensure a supported transition to teaching history in accordance with Common Core State Standards Elizabeth Moje Arthur F Thurnau Professor School of Education University of Michigan The C3 Framework for Social Studies State Standards and the Common Core State Standards challenge students to investigate complex ideas think critically and apply knowledge in real world settings This extraordinary book provides tried and true practical tools and step by step directions for social studies to meet these goals and prepare students for college career and civic life in the 21st century relate documents to different areas analyze common themes of different time periods or compare individual and group experiences which reflect socioeconomic racial gender and ethnic differences Part A consists of a mandatory 15 minute reading period followed by 45 minutes during which you must answer a document based question DBQ which changes from year to year In Part B the student chooses to answer on two of the topics that are given You will have 70 minutes to write these essays The free response section counts for 50 percent of your final grade These topics are broken down into thirds Political Institutions 1 3rd Social and Economic Change 1 3rd Behavior and Public Policy Diplomacy and International Relations Intellectual and Cultural Development 1 3rd The time periods covered are as follows Pre Colonial through 1789 1 6th of exam 1790 1914 1 2 of exam 1915 present 1 3rd of exam

ABOUT THE REVIEW SECTION This book begins with REA s concise yet thorough 230 page review of U S history designed to acquaint you with the exam s scope of coverage Our review covers these topics and historical time periods The Colonial Period 1500 1763 The American Revolution 1763 1787 The United States Constitution 1787 1789 The New National 1789 1824 Jacksonian Democracy and Westward Expansion 1824 1850 Sectional Conflict and The Causes of the Civil War 1850 1860 The Civil War and Reconstruction 1860 1877 Industrialism War and the Progressive Era 1877 1912 Wilson and World War I 1912 1920 The Roaring Twenties and Economic Collapse 1920 1929 The Great Depression and the New Deal 1929 1941 World War II and the Post War Era 1941 1960 The New Frontier Vietnam and Social Upheaval 1960 1972 Watergate Carter and the New Conservatism 1972 2001

SCORING THE EXAM The multiple choice section of the exam is scored by crediting each correct answer with one point and deducting one fourth of a point for each incorrect answer You will neither receive a credit nor suffer a deduction for unanswered questions The free response essays are graded by instructors and professors from across the country who come together each June for a week of non stop AP essay grading Each essay booklet is read and scored by several graders Each grader provides a score for the individual essays The DBQ is scored on a scale from 0 to 15 0 being the lowest and 15 the highest Each topic based essay receives a score from 0 to 9 These scores are concealed so that each grader is unaware of the previous graders assessments When the essays have been graded completely the scores are averaged one score for each essay so that the free response section generates three scores The total weight of the free response section is 50 percent of the total score Your work in the multiple choice section counts for the other 50 percent Each year grades fluctuate slightly because the grading scale is adjusted to take into account the performance of the total AP U S History test taker population When used with the corresponding chart the scoring method we present here will strongly approximate the score you would receive if you were sitting for the actual AP U S History exam

SCORING THE MULTIPLE CHOICE SECTION For the multiple choice section use this formula to calculate your raw score $\text{Number right} - \frac{\text{number wrong}}{4}$ raw score round to the nearest whole number

SCORING THE FREE RESPONSE SECTION For the free response section use this formula to calculate your raw score DBQ Essay 1 Essay 2 raw score round to the nearest whole number You may want to give your essays three different grades such as a 13 10 and an 8 and then calculate your score three ways as if you did
