Technology and the Intelligence Community Margaret E. Kosal,2018-03-19 This volume examines the role of technology in gathering assimilating and utilizing intelligence information through the ages Pushing the boundaries of existing works the articles contained here take a broad view of the use and implementation of technology and intelligence procedures during the cold war era and the space race the September 2011 attacks and more recent cyber operations It looks at the development of different technologies procedural implications thereof and the underlying legal and ethical implications The findings are then used to explore the future trends in technology including cyber operations big data open source intelligence smart cities and augmented reality Starting from the core aspects of technical capabilities the articles dig deeper exploring the hard and soft infrastructure of intelligence gathering procedures and focusing on the human and bureaucratic procedures involved therein Technology and innovation have played an important role in determining the course of development of the intelligence community Intelligence gathering for national security however is not limited only to the thread of technical capabilities but is a complex fabric of organizational structures systemic undercurrents and the role of personnel in key positions of decision making The book s findings and conclusions encompass not just temporal variation but also cut across a diverse set of issue areas This compilation is uniquely placed in the interdisciplinary space combining the lessons from key cases in the past to current developments and implementation of technology options Has

Trust in the U.S. Intelligence Community Eroded? Christopher Dictus,Yuliya Shokh,Isabelle Nazha,Marek N.

Posard, Richard S. Girven, Sina Beaghley, Anthony Vassalo, 2024-02-13 Policy and U S Intelligence Community IC professionals have suggested that the IC is held in increasingly lower regard by some decisionmakers and that predictions have had variable success in influencing decisionmakers Researchers explored whether and to what degree trust in intelligence predictions and national estimates has degraded over time and what factors might have driven any changes in the relationship between policymakers and the IC

How Iran Plans to Fight America and Dominate the Middle East Gabriel G. Tabarani, 2008 With the creeping possibility of a nuclear breakout its vigorous sponsorship of international non state armed groups and its escalating intervention next door in Iraq Lebanon and the Palestinian Territories the Islamic Republic of Iran is a triple threat at least to international security and America and Western s Middle Eastern interests Indeed perhaps no country according to the West fits the definition of rogue state as well as Iran does Making matters worse Iran s confidence and clout in the region and beyond are indubitably on the rise But that is only the beginning Shiite Persian Iran is not content with being just an inconsequential pariah Iran has grand ambitions Tehran wants to be the predominant state in the Middle East replacing the United States as the region s power broker and lording over its Sunni Arab neighbours With the fall of its most fearsome competitors for regional pre eminence Iraq s Saddam Hussein and Afghanistan s Taliban Iran is unabashedly reasserting itself on the international stage Buoyed by high energy prices emboldened by continuing American challenges in Iraq and Afghanistan encouraged by consistent unimpeded progress in its nuclear program and the increased influence of its extremist allies Hamas and Hizbollah Iran has its eye on becoming the regional hegemony So the question here How Iran plans to fight America Israel and the West and dominate the Middle East Gabriel G Tabarani who is an Expert on Middle East Affairs will try to give the answer on this question in this book through a fair and balanced information analysis arguments examination and recommendations which will clear every point concerning the Iranian ambitions and the USA strategy to confront them
