Whale Talk Chris Crutcher, 2005-04-27 Whale Talk Literature Suppressed on Social Grounds Dawn B.

Sova, 2014-05-14 Literature Suppressed on Social Grounds Revised Edition discusses writings that have been banned over the centuries because they offended or merely ignored official truths challenged widely held assumptions or contained ideas or language unacceptable to a state religious institution or private moral watchdog The entries new to this edition include the Captain Underpants series We All Fall Down by Robert Cormier and Jake and Honeybunch Go to Heaven by Margaret Zemach Also included are updates to the censorship histories of such books as To Kill a Mockingbird and Of Mice and Men

Whale Talk Chris Crutcher, 2005-08-01 Intellectually and athletically gifted TJ a multiracial adopted teenager shuns organized sports and the gung ho athletes at his high school until he agrees to form a swimming team and recruits some of the school's less popular students Chris Crutcher Michael A. Sommers, 2004-12-15 A recipient of the 2000 Margaret A. Edwards Award Chris Crutcher is best known for his books featuring athletic male protagonists on the cusp of adulthood This volume takes a look at his life and work Forbidden Fruit Sarah McNicol, 2008 Forbidden Fruit The Censorship of Literature and Information for Young People was a two day conference held in Southport UK in June 2008 This collection of papers from the conference will be of interest to teachers school and public librarians publishers and other professionals involved in the provision of literature and information resources for young people as well as to researchers and students The proceedings draw together some of the latest research in this area from a number of fields including librarianship education literature and linguistics The topics covered include translations and adaptations pre censorship by authors publishers and editors LGBT lesbian gay bi sexual and trans materials and the views of young people themselves The papers included in the proceedings deal with a wide range of issues Research student Lucy Pearson takes a historical perspective considering the differences in the way in which two titles Young Mother in the 1960s and Forever in the 1970s handle the theme of teenage sexuality John Harer from the United States and Elizabeth Chapman and Caroline Wright from the UK also deal with the controversial issue of teenage sexuality Both papers are concerned with the censorship of LGBT lesbian gay bi sexual and trans materials for young people especially referring to issues faced by librarians in dealing with such resources in their respective countries Another writer to examine the issue from a librarianship perspective is Wendy Stephens who reports on her action research into students reactions to book banning and censorship in the context of a twelfth grade English literature research project Taking one step back from the question of access to controversial materials Cherie Givens reports on her doctoral research examining the often neglected issue of pre censorship that is restrictions which take place usually as a result of pressure from editors and publishers before materials reach the library shelves Showing a different side of the publishing industry Christopher Gruppetta writes from the perspective of a publisher keen to promote young adult fiction in Malta His article demonstrates the huge strides which can take place in a relatively short period of time even in a religiously conservative country Talks by young adult authors were also included in the conference programme Ioanna Kaliakatsou considers how self censorship is exercised by authors and how attitudes have changed since the early twentieth century Yet another point at which works might be censored is when they are translated or adapted Evangelia Moula focuses on censorship in adaptations of classic Greek tragedies while Helen T Frank examines Australian children s fiction translated into French to highlight the process of purification or sanitization that can occur during translations Chris Crutcher Bryan Gillis,Pam B. Cole,2012-08-17 Examines the life and works of the young adult fiction author discussing the themes and characters found in his works Discovering Voice Nancy Dean,2013 Lessons on diction detail figurative language imagery syntax and tone help middle and early high school students understand the concept of voice in what they read and develop a strong personal voice in their own writing Each voice lesson takes only 10 20 minutes to complete and includes a quotation selected from a wide range of literature two discussion questions and an exercise that encourages students to practice what they have learned about the elements of voice Discovering Voice also offers a collection of quotations students can use to create their own voice lessons Discussion suggestions for each voice lesson and additional activities for teaching voice further promote critical analysis Each of the seven packs on the elements of voice diction detail figurative language 1 metaphors similes and personification figurative language 2 hyperboles symbols and irony imagery syntax and tone include an introduction lessons with discussion questions and an exercise write your own voice lessons a list of additional activities for teaching voice and discussion suggestions Why Didn't They Just Say That? Jennifer M Schmidt,2017-11-07 Let s create a class instead of the typical social skills programs With this statement began the development of this innovative evidence based curriculum for secondary students with ASD and their neurotypical NT peers PEERspective is a complete curriculum that teaches high school students self awareness self acceptance relationship building conflict resolution managing stress and wellness and many other topics that have lifelong impact on students lives The curriculum is popular among students with ASD as well as their NT peers leading to friendships and relationships far beyond the classroom

Talking Book Topics ,2003

Silenced in the Library Zeke Jarvis,2017-08-18 Censorship has been an ongoing phenomenon even in the land of the free This examination of banned books across U S history examines the motivations and effects of censorship shows us how our view of right and wrong has evolved over the years and helps readers to understand the tremendous importance of books and films in our society Books ranging from classics such as A Farewell to Arms Lord of the Rings The Catcher in the Rye and The Color Purple as well as best selling books such as Are You There God It s Me Margaret titles in the Harry Potter series and various books by bestselling novelist Stephen King have all been on the banned books list What was the content that got them banned who wanted them banned and did the ban have the desired effect of minimizing the number of people who read the title or did it have the opposite effect inadvertently creating an even larger readership for the book Silenced in the Library Banned Books in America provides a comprehensive examination of the challenges to major books as well as the final results of these selections being deemed unfit for public consumption Included in its discussion are explanations of the true nature of the objections along with the motives of the authors publishers and major proponents of the books Content is organized based on why the books were banned such as sexual content drug use or religious objections This approach helps readers to see trends in how people have approached the challenge of evaluating what is proper and shows how our societal consensus of what is acceptable has evolved over the years Readers will come away with a fuller appreciation of the immense power of words on a page or an eReader device to inflame and outrage influence opinion incite thought and even change the course of history

Talking through Reading and Writing Daniel Rose,Christine Walsh,2020-11-11 In this book you will read many examples of rich literacy conversations between a teacher and his 8th grade students that never would have occurred face to face in the classroom These conversations take place online when 8th graders write to their teacher about the books they re interested in reading and choosing to read independently Students write about what happens when they read or don t read how they feel about reading how they re connecting with characters and ideas why they don t have enough time to read and what their reading goals are And their teacher writes back to them Every week After each conversation you will read some meta talk that shines a light on what the conversation has taught us about this language learner and how this data is informing our beliefs and practices Embedded within the chapters are suggested resources articles book recommendations links websites blogs etc you can follow should you want to read more in that chapter What these students reveal about their own literacy development their successes their challenges their lives and how their teacher nudges them along socially emotionally and academically teach us the value and power of one practical authentic literacy tool the Reading Conversation
