Migration in Southern Africa Pragna Rugunanan, Nomkhosi Xulu-Gama, 2022-05-30 This open access Regional Reader proposes new ways of theorizing migration in Southern Africa by arguing that traditional western forms of theorizing do not adequately fit the South South migration context It explores the existing definitions of a migrant with a view to conceptualise a definition which will speak to the complexities envisioning a more inclusive Southern African region The book investigates the various levels of migration moving from the local rural to urban and urban to rural to cross border migration middle class versus working class migrant household livelihoods livelihoods procurement versus wage earning social capital networks and how they make meaning of their circumstances in a foreign space It also acknowledges the intertwined issues of gender and class as important in analyzing migration processes and the chapters feature both in varying dimensions As such the book provides a great resource for students academics and policy makers Annual Report South Africa. Department of Basic Education, 2016

Brunner and Suddarth's Textbook of Medical-Surgical Nursing Janice L. Hinkle, Kerry H. Cheever, 2018-08-30 Trusted by nursing fraternity for more than 50 years Brunner and Suddarth's Textbook of Medical Surgical Nursing layers essential patient care information engaging critical thinking exercises and diverse features to help students learn critical content The South Asian edition is comprehensively updated to customize and keep pace with South Asia's health care environment by including Indian Asian epidemiologic data of common diseases and disorders flowcharts of pathophysiologic processes of various diseases and disorders and psychosocial concepts which is contemporary to South Asian scenario Furthermore essential medical surgical nursing content and diseases disorders which are specific to South Asia are added to make this textbook most suitable to South Asian learners ICCWS 2019 14th International Conference on Cyber Warfare and Security Noëlle van der Waag-Cowling, Louise Leenen, 2019-02-28 Transformative Curricula, Pedagogies and Epistemologies, 2021-08-04 This book presents useful insights on the regeneration of curricula and pedagogies with a particular focus on universities in South Africa and Africa in general Transformative Curricula Pedagogies and Epistemologies Teaching and Learning in Diverse Higher Education Contexts further explores the state of teaching and learning in different contexts together with the emerging challenges and responsibilities that African higher education in the twenty first century is faced with The analysis is put in light of the assumptions borrowed from the West for Western epistemologies and pedagogies are still dominant Instead the book presents a case on the need for rethinking pedagogies and epistemologies within African higher education that include African culture values ethics and indigenous knowledge The new obligations of inclusive education decolonisation transformation and academic and professional experiences are of paramount importance for contemporary higher education Valuable ideas about practices and policies in epistemological and pedagogical transformative mechanisms are discussed which can be used to inform a decolonised teaching and learning curriculum most suitable for an African higher education system Above all the book goes beyond mere narratives as it explores decolonisation strategies suitable for transforming pedagogical and epistemological practices that include the education system as a whole

Climate Change Resilience in Rural Southern Africa Mark Matsa, Lazarus Chapungu, Godwell Nhamo, 2024-12-17 In rural Southern Africa the livelihoods of millions are intricately linked to the land water and ecosystems that are increasingly under threat from climate change This intensifying threat has exacerbated pre existing vulnerabilities rendering the need for resilience building more critical than ever Emerging scholarship on climate change strategies suggest that building resilience in human and environmental systems is the ideal strategy for combating the climate change induced catastrophes Rural Southern Africa has witnessed both isolated and coordinated efforts by various stakeholders to bolster climate resilience yielding varying degrees of success This book offers a comprehensive examination of the rural Southern African landscape probing the intricate dynamics prospects and challenges associated with building climate resilience It examines how traditional knowledge innovative practices including Artificial Intelligence and sustainable development strategies are converging to create resilient systems The book further highlights the critical role of local communities in addressing climate challenges and offers actionable insights for a more resilient future It emerged that some interventions have managed to build resilience of at risk households communities and systems while others have faced significant challenges In general climate resilience building remains complex and lagging due to increased vulnerabilities induced by global disease emergencies such as COVID 19 increased poverty due to global recessions poor governance corruption and several other internal and external factors Therefore the need to increase cooperation amongst Southern African states to pursue common development goals cannot be overemphasized Rich with case studies expert analyses and systematic reviews this book is an essential read for policymakers researchers and those invested in the future of rural Southern Africa
