Most contemporary journalistic and scholarly accounts of the instability gripping Afghanistan and Pakistan have argued that violent Islamic extremism including support for the Taliban and related groups is either rooted in Pashtun history and culture or finds willing hosts among their communities on both sides of the Afghanistan Pakistan border Abubakar Siddique sets out to demonstrate that the failure or even unwillingness of both Afghanistan and Pakistan to absorb the Pashtuns into their state structures and to incorporate them into the economic and political fabric is central to these dynamics and a critical failure of nation and state building in both states In his book he argues that religious extremism is the product of these critical failures and that responsibility for the situation lies to some degree with the elites of both countries Partly an eye witness account and partly meticulously researched scholarship The Pashtun Question describes a people whose destiny will shape the future of Pakistan and Afghanistan The Deoband Ulama and their Love for Rasulullah Sallahu 'alaihi Wassalam S19 Design, 2014-09-11

The Other in South Asian Religion, Literature and Film Diana Dimitrova, 2014-01-10. This book introduces the term otherism and looks at the discourse of otherism and the issue of otherness in South Asian religion, literature and film. It examines cultural questions related to the human condition of being the other, of the process of othering and of the representation of otherness and its religious, cultural and ideological implications. The book applies the perspectives of ideological criticism, theories of hybridity, orientalism, nationalism and gender and queer studies to gain new insights into the literature, film and culture of South Asia. It looks at the different ways of interpreting otherness today. The book goes on to analyze the ideological implications of the creation of otherness with regard to religious and cultural identity and the legitimation of power as well as how the representation of otherness reflects the power structures of contemporary societies in South Asia. Offering a well thought out reflection on important cultural questions as well as a deep insight into the study of religion and otherness in South Asian literature and film, this book is a pioneering project that is of interest to scholars of South Asian Studies and South Asian religions, literatures and cultures.

Iqbal Zafar Anjum, 2014-10-13. Allama Mohammad Iqbal, whom Sarojini Naidu called the Poet laureate of Asia, remains a controversial figure in the history of the Indian subcontinent. On the one hand, he is considered the Spiritual Father of Pakistan. On the other, his message of Eastern revivalism places him in the ranks of the twentieth century's major intellectuals. Iqbal's tragedy was that after his death, he was made the national poet of Pakistan and largely ignored in India. In his time, he was lauded as much as Tagore, but today India celebrates Tagore while Iqbal has been banished from her consciousness. This meticulously researched biography will redress that erasure. This is the story of Iqbal's evolution as a poet, philosopher and politician. While his role in the struggle for India's freedom and the Pakistan movement are well known, not much is known about his personal life. This book highlights some of the least known facets of the poet's life: how did a nationalist poet transform into a poet of Islamic revivalism and global revolution? How did three years in Europe change Iqbal's political and philosophical outlook? Why did he start writing in Persian during his stay in Europe? Why did his first marriage fail and how did his romantic relationships affect him? What exactly was the poet's role in bringing about Partition? Written with the passion of an ardent devotee, Zafar Anjum's Iqbal answers all of these questions and many more in this carefully told
