International Handbook of Research in History, Philosophy and Science Teaching Michael R. Matthews, 2014-07-03 This inaugural handbook documents the distinctive research field that utilizes history and philosophy in investigation of theoretical curricular and pedagogical issues in the teaching of science and mathematics It is contributed to by 130 researchers from 30 countries it provides a logically structured fully referenced guide to the ways in which science and mathematics education is informed by the history and philosophy of these disciplines as well as by the philosophy of education more generally The first handbook to cover the field it lays down a much needed marker of progress to date and provides a platform for informed and coherent future analysis and research of the subject The publication comes at a time of heightened worldwide concern over the standard of science and mathematics education attended by fierce debate over how best to reform curricula and enliven student engagement in the subjects There is a growing recognition among educators and policy makers that the learning of science must dovetail with learning about science this handbook is uniquely positioned as a locus for the discussion The handbook features sections on pedagogical theoretical national and biographical research setting the literature of each tradition in its historical context It reminds readers at a crucial juncture that there has been a long and rich tradition of historical and philosophical engagements with science and mathematics teaching and that lessons can be learnt from these engagements for the resolution of current theoretical curricular and pedagogical questions that face teachers and administrators Science educators will be grateful for this unique encyclopaedic handbook Gerald Holton Physics Department Harvard University This handbook gathers the fruits of over thirty years research by a growing international and cosmopolitan community Fabio Bevilacqua Physics Department University of Pavia

How to End the Reading War and Serve the Literacy Needs of All Students P. L. Thomas, 2020-06-01 The twenty first century Reading War is in fact nothing new but some of the details are unique to our current culture driven by social media This volume seeks to examine the current Reading War in the context of the historical recurrence of public and political debates around student reading abilities and achievement Grounded in a media fascination with the science of reading and fueled by a rise in advocates for students with dyslexia the current Reading War has resulted in some deeply troubling reading policy grade retention and intensive phonics programs This primer for parents policy makers and people who care confronts some of the most compelling but misunderstood aspects of teaching reading in the U S while also offering a way toward ending the Reading War in order to serve all students regardless of their needs Emerging Infectious Diseases , 2017-07

Psychological determinants of entrepreneurial intentions and behaviors Bostjan Antoncic, Jasna Auer Antoncic, Robert D. Hisrich, 2023-06-07 Knowing Her Place Valerie Bevan, Caroline Gatrell, 2017-12-29 More women are studying science at university and they consistently outperform men Yet still significantly fewer women than men hold prestigious jobs in science Why should this occur What prevents women from achieving as highly as men in science And why are so few women positioned as creative genius research scientists Drawing upon the views of 47 female and male scientists Bevan and Gatrell explore why women are less likely than men to become eminent in their profession They observe three mechanisms which perpetuate women's lowered place in science subtle masculinities whereby certain forms of masculinity are valued over womanhood motherhood in which women's potential for maternity positions them as other and the image of creative genius which is associated with male bodies excluding women from research roles The Times Index , 2007 Indexes the Times and its supplements

Research and Discussions in Critical Discourses and Remedies in Global Health Education Ashti A. Doobay-Persaud, Tracy L. Rabin, Tomlin Paul, Jessica Evert, Benedicta Ayiedu Mensah, 2024-10-01 Global Health a field of study research and practice defined in 2009 with precursors in international health and development is currently reckoning with itself The field has well intended goals emphasizing collaboration and dialogue between population health public health clinical care and other disciplines to address socioeconomic determinants of health and employing interdisciplinary approaches to address health inequities wherever they exist Despite these lofty ideals there are concerns that the field itself has historically served to reinforce rather than deconstruct colonialism and power imbalances At this point in time the field has evolved toward a vision of a community of practice between institutions across the income spectrum HIC LMIC LIC working in bidirectional and multidirectional ways to develop staff space systems and strategies to eliminate health disparities However with deeply rooted colonial assumptions racism elitism and other forms of bias underlying institutions and individuals initiatives operating under the auspices of Global Health are all too often antithetical to the pursuit itself
