

The background of the cover is a photograph of a scenic landscape. It features a calm lake in the center, reflecting the sky and the surrounding mountains. The mountains are covered in dense forests with trees in various shades of autumn, including yellows, oranges, and reds. A road or path winds through the valley on the left side of the lake. The sky is a clear, vibrant blue with a few wispy clouds near the horizon.

Rethinking Tourism and Ecotravel Deborah McLaren, 2003 Exceptional overview of the tourism industry worldwide Case studies of indigenous people's responses to tourism development Detailed listing of tourism and ecotourism resources This is a fully revised and comprehensive overview of the history and global development of tourism one of the largest industries in the world Despite promising great benefits to hosts and guests alike tourism often results in some very stark and painful consequences for local host communities and the environment The second edition provides updated information on global tourism and examines how local communities in different parts of the world especially indigenous peoples have responded to the challenges and opportunities of tourism and ecotravel

Exploring the Use and Impact of Travel Guidebooks Victoria Peel, Anders Sørensen, 2016-02-04 This volume provides the first comprehensive examination of travel guidebooks and their conceptualisation use and impact Guidebooks have been key tourism paraphernalia for almost two centuries and although researched in some areas academic knowledge on guidebooks in tourism has not been expansively communicated The uncritical unreflective and largely pejorative approach to guidebooks in the public sphere and to some degree also present in academia is reassessed in this book This challenges the current limited tourism research approaches to the topic including the routinely held assumption that the internet has all but destroyed the printed guidebook This book will be a useful resource for postgraduate students and researchers in tourism and tourism communications and consumption
