DR. KANDEH KOLLEH YUMKELLA
AT THE GRADUATION OF THE CLASS 2008-2009
MARYMOUNT INTERNATIONAL SCHOOL
ON 30 MAY 2009

The Principal of Marymount International,
Distinguished teachers,
Parents, Relatives and Friends of the Graduates,
Our Distinguished Graduates of 2009,
Ladies and Gentlemen,

I feel honoured to be here to celebrate the graduation of all of the brilliant young ladies, the future leaders of the world. To be frank, I am very nervous for two reasons; first, although I give speeches around the world as part of my work, it is the first time that I address a high school graduating class. Second, and more importantly, I am nervous because, my daughter Binta (Ms. B, as I call her), is part of this graduating class (and she has warned me not to give one of my long boring diplomatic speeches).

First of all, on behalf of all parents, I want to thank all of you the great teachers and boarding supervisors for taking care of our girls, and for molding them into professional young ladies. It is not easy to manage teenagers (I know because I was a teacher before).

To you our graduates, you have to enjoy this moment and this great day as you march on to become adults; dream great dreams about life in the universities you will be attending in a few months; aspire to own your own driving license; maybe you might even receive an increase in your allowances; or perhaps start your first summer job. You should cherish this moment and victory, and have fun with your families. Above all, you should

A Superior Romance Robert Williams, 2006-08 When I began working on this story I had a specific goal in mind I wanted to give my grandchildren some sense of the kind of person my father was He was encouraging he was knowledgeable he was helpful and he was a good listener He was such a big influence on me but he did not live long enough to ever see my grandchildren I was afraid the only thing they would ever know of him was a name on a marker in a cemetery so I thought I should put together some of my memories of Lee Williams Alas as I organized my ideas I ran into a problem I couldn't write about Dad and my teen age years without telling of my teen age romances I didn't want to hurt anybody's feelings so I had to alter some stories and craft new ones And once the stories became fiction this story literally began to re-write the past When the world of fantasy is found to be so much more pleasurable than the real world what is wrong with enjoying our dreams for a little while Yale Alumni Weekly ,1921 UCSF Pharmacy Alumni Association Newsletter ,1992 U.S. Citizen by Choice Tjien O.
