The Grape-Toned Studebaker Louis Burl Houston,2012-02 For some time I have wanted to let you know how much I appreciated your writings Thank you for sharing your stories Such wonderful inspirational lessons in life Beverly L I just wanted to say I enjoyed your story about the old lady and the blue jay and to thank you for the kindness you showed the woman in the story Brenda B After reading your essay about growing older I just had to let you know how much I enjoyed it Thank you for making me smile and for the reminder Joy H We just wanted to say THANK YOU from all of us at the animal shelter for your story Man s Best Friends Thank you very much sir Brandon A Good solid teaching and good common sense Faith C Your story about the little girl brought tears to my eyes What a wonderful story Debbie D I am a retired railroad engineer and I enjoy reading your stories I would like to get more insight into a couple of them that especially intrigue me Wayne E You ve done it again What a wonderful and inspiring story Rachel K I enjoy all your stories and essays but the one on beekeeping really touched my heart Edith P Eloquent and poignant and so well written from the heart and soul of one who cares Your writing entertains me and evokes emotions as I see in my mind s eye the scenes you are describing Some are maddening some humorous and some are poignant Shelly M I really enjoyed this week s article It was well written insightful and carried a passionate warning Thank you Gene L Louis first started writing poetry and short stories at the age of 12 and never really stopped By nature quiet reserved and self deprecatory he regaled his co workers on coffee breaks through the years He told stories about his large family of aunts and uncles and related experiences that kept his audiences laughing and asking for more Upon his retirement he began to write with renewed enthusiasm He devoted time and effort toward improving his writing skills in order to entertain people Subsequently he was selected to write a weekly column for the Siloam Springs Herald Leader newspaper His column has continued for two and one half years and the response to it has been widespread approval His stories and essays make people laugh cry and most of all to be inspired Field & Stream ,2007-07 FIELD STREAM America s largest outdoor sports magazine celebrates the outdoor experience with great stories compelling photography and sound advice while honoring the traditions hunters and fishermen have passed down for generations Roadhunting Sean Michael Collins,2015-09-02 Why would anyone want to roadhunt Some folks might ask A number of you reading this book already know why you would A number of those who ask this question with shock and dismay will be landowners who ironically will have posted large chunks of property to keep everyone but themselves their friends and family out then sadly shake their head at the state of aff airs wherein roadhunting exists The fact is that if there were decent access for all roadhunting would not exist to the extent that it does But often times the people that bitch and complain the most about roadhunting are those that are primarily responsible for it For some folks roadhunting is nothing more than a means to extend their hunting time while driving to and from their hunting area and or something to do on days where there is inclement weather For others especially those who live where there is little to no public hunting land roadhunting may be the only practical way to put game in the freezer Landowners contrary to what many of them would have you believe do not own the deer or other game Wild animals are owned so to speak if anyone really can own them by the public and you my friend are a member of the public Many landowners feel that they de facto own wild game because it lives on their property so if you must temporarily access someone elses private property to get what is yours then so be it I would freely admit that roadhunting is hardly the highest form of hunting out there unfortunately a lot of us have neither the time nor money either to aff ord their own property or travel to top notch hunting locations There is nothing that says roadhunting and fi eld hunting have to be mutually exclusive that you have to do either one or the other The author spends three hundred plus hours a year deer hunting in the fi eld or woods and some years are certainly better than others Therefore when a gift deer comes along and presents itself by the road Im not going to feel bad about taking it I fail to see how anyone can be hurt by knowing how to roadhunt whether you practice it or not is up to you but you may fi nd the knowledge helpful some day when times get tough Also nothing says you cant use what you learn from this book just to help enhance your deer viewing activities Once you learn roadhunting its like riding a bicycle or shooting a rifl e you never really forget how And even if you dont care for the instructional portions of this book hopefully you will fi nd the stories entertaining A majority of this book has to do with roadhunting whitetail deer with a chapter thrown in about small game in Michigan However the author would point out that he has spotted whitetail in eight other states and two Canadian Provinces Also I have at diff erent times spotted mule deer elk and antelope Being who I am I couldnt help but notice that on numerous of these occasions I honestly believe I could have pulled off a successful roadhunt had I so desired Although the hands on tactics so to speak laid out in this book are based on experiences that happened in Michigan I fi rmly believe that they can be used almost anywhere Some of the tactics and information contained in this book are legal in some places and not others and some are illegal everywhere Therefore this book should be read for educational and entertainment purposes only Neither the author nor publisher accepts any responsibility or liability for the use or misuse of information contained in this book With that said good luck and good hunting
