Like literature, theater has also inherited the scene of myth. It satisfies our need for narration, interpretation and to share in something. In turn, the joint creation of meaning in scenic practices is also part of the traditional idealization of the theater but is this ideal purely mythical The authors of this book investigate and explore how meaning is being questioned or liberated in contemporary performances and how individual thinking action can be articulated to others paving the way for other gestures theatrical processes of recognition and the performative sharing process of sense making Neurotrauma Management for the Severely Injured Polytrauma Patient James M.
