Dogmas in Literature and Literary Missionary: Text, Reader and Critique Önder Çakırtaş,2023-10-17 Literature does have an aspect that drags the readers habitually burying them in its pages and blindly attaching them to itself Blind devotion stems from the factors that are effective in determining the readers faith Theories of literature similarly might bring about the generation of blind adherence and dogmatic approaches This book explores the existence of dogma in literature and some cult texts and writers and how dogmas in literature are conveyed to various audiences as a mission by some literary readers experts and academics Generally dogma is a word related mostly to religion In this frame Mathew Arnold s Dogma in Religion and Literature is of great importance as far as religion is concerned However there are dogmas in every field literature being no exception Virginia Woolf for instance wrote stupendous works that turned out to be well known and in 1928 she delivered a lecture at Cambridge University where women were once not allowed that formed the basis for the celebrated A Room of One's Own 1929 Roland Barthes 1967 La mort de l'auteur The Death of the Author essay might be another text that some of its literary readers have developed a dogmatic commitment to In addition to revealing how dogma finds its place in literature this book also discusses how literary writers and readers often unwittingly embrace literary missionary Focusing on the dogmatic elements of literature and the dogmatized literary theory and criticism through cult works of various authors the book offers a striking and interesting contribution to literary theory and criticism and literature readings Making Sense of Education in Post-Handover Hong Kong Thomas Kwan-Choi Tse, Michael H.

Lee, 2016-11-10 Since 1997 when Hong Kong became a Special Administrative Region of the People's Republic of China a string of education reforms have been introduced to improve the quality of education and maintain Hong Kong's economic competitiveness in the age of globalization This book provides a comprehensive and critical analysis of major issues and challenges faced by the education system ranging from pre school to higher education It analyses the prospects for educational development in Hong Kong It further addresses how the Hong Kong government has responded to the perceived challenges of the external environment and internal forces and explains the rationales for the actions taken Not only does it review how the reform initiative challenges have been dealt with it also reviews how effective these initiatives are and its implications on future directions Yearbook of International Organizations 2014-2015 (Volume 4) Union Of
