CHAPTER 1

Section 1. Population Dynamics (pages 10-107)

Key point: textbooks read about populations & characteristics.

Characteristics of the world's population can be described in categories: age, sex, race.

characteristics of population density

density dependent characteristics

density independent characteristics

growth rate

Some characteristics that all populations have include: (1) population density

(2) gender ratio _____ and (3) age structure _____ Population growth is influenced by density _____, and by sex _____ Population growth is influenced by the age structure _____ of these communities. Factors that limit population growth are density dependent _____ or density independent _____

Key point: textbooks read about population characteristics.

Characteristics can be described by studying the natural history of the population.

Characteristics	Density Dependent	Density Independent
1. Population density
2. Sex ratio
3. Age structure
4. Growth rate
5. Life expectancy

Characteristics of the world's population: (1) the population is large, (2) the population is growing, (3) the population is becoming more urban.

1. Population density (population & population density are increasing worldwide).

2. Sex ratio (ratio of males to females) (population is becoming more female).

3. Age structure (the population is becoming more urban) (the population is becoming more urban).

4. Growth rate (the population is growing) (the population is growing).
