This Seventh Edition of Corporate Finance and the Securities Laws is about doing deals—transactions in which companies raise funds in the U.S. and international capital markets. We have tried to retain the book's practical orientation which we believe was responsible for the previous editions' considerable success. We do not intend this book as a complete treatise on the U.S. federal securities laws nor do we intend it as an investor's or issuer's guide to the capital markets. Rather, we are trying to explain the legal environment in which capital markets transactions take place just as we are trying to explain the capital markets transactions to which that environment is always trying to adapt.

Highlights of the Seventh Edition include:

- SEC administrative proceedings and SCOTUS decision in Axon Enterprise Inc v FTC and SCOTUS agreement to hear Jarkesy v SEC
- Change in SEC personnel's standard disclaimer when making public statements
- Second Circuit decision in Kirschner holding bank loans not to be securities after SEC's declining to state its views
- SEC commissioner's speech raising prospect that bank loans might eventually be treated as securities
- Digital assets
- SEC enforcement proceedings alleging digital assets to be securities for purposes of 1933 Act registration and 1934 Act broker-dealer and securities exchange registration
- SEC partial defeat in Ripple litigation in SDNY followed by favorable decision in Terraform
- Less than three weeks later SEC use of Section 17(b) of 1933 Act to pursue celebrity endorsers of digital assets
- Prospects for federal legislation
- Proposed legislation to make electronic delivery the default method of delivering communications required under federal securities laws
- Amendment of SIFMA model form of agreement among underwriters to authorize syndicate manager or another underwriter to act as calculating underwriter for purposes of calculating probability of default
- Under amended Rules 101 and 102 of Regulation M
- Amendment of SIFMA model form of agreement among underwriters to reflect amendments to FINRA Rule 11880 regarding settlement of syndicate accounts
- T-1 standard settlement cycle as of May 28, 2024
- SEC decision not to extend no-action relief for research providers affected by MiFID II's unbundling rule
