Building Support for Scholarly Practices in Mathematics Methods Signe E. Kastberg, Andrew M. Tyminski, Alyson E. Lischka, Wendy B. Sanchez, 2017-09-01 Building Support for Scholarly Practices in Mathematics Methods is the product of collaborations among over 40 mathematics teacher educators MTEs who teach mathematics methods courses for prospective PreK 12 teachers in many different institutional contexts and structures Each chapter unpacks ways in which MTEs use

theoretical perspectives to inform their construction of goals activities designed to address those goals facilitation of activities and ways in which MTEs make sense of experiences prospective teachers have as a result The book is organized in seven sections that highlight how the theoretical perspective of the instructor impacts scholarly inquiry and practice The final section provides insight as we look backward to reflect and forward with excitement moving with the strength of the variation we found in our stories and the feeling of solidarity that results in our understandings of purposes for and insight into teaching mathematics methods This book can serve as a resource for MTEs as they discuss and construct scholarly practices and as they undertake scholarly inquiry as a means to systematically examine their practice

Manufactured Uncertainty Lorraine Code, 2020-11-01 In this provocative work Lorraine Code returns to the idea of epistemic responsibility as developed in her influential 1987 book of the same name to confront the telling new challenges we now face to know the world with some sense of responsibility to other knowers and to the sustaining nonhuman world Manufactured Uncertainty focuses centrally on the environmental and cultural crises arising from postindustrial man made climate change which have spawned new forms of passionately partisan social media that directly challenge all efforts to know with a sense of collective responsibility How can we agree to act together Code asks even in the face of inevitable uncertainty given the truly life threatening stakes of today's social and political challenges How can we engage responsibly with those who take every argument for an environmentally grounded epistemology as an unacceptable challenge to their assumed freedoms comforts and rights Through searching critical dialogue with leading epistemologists cultural theorists and feminist scholars this book poses a timely challenge to all thoughtful knowers who seek to articulate an expanded and deepened sense of epistemic responsibility to a human society and a natural world embraced together in the most inclusive spirit

The Anti-Pelagian Imagination in Political Theory and International Relations Nicholas Rengger, 2017-03-31 This volume draws together some of the key works of Nicholas Rengger focusing on the theme of the anti Pelagian imagination in political theory and international relations Rengger frames the collection with a detailed introduction that sketches out this imagination its origins and character and puts the chapters that follow into context with the work of other theorists including Bull Connolly Gray Strauss Elshtain and Kant The volume concludes with an epilogue contrasting two different ways of reading this sensibility and offering reasons for supposing one is preferable to the other Updating and expanding on ideas from work over the course of the last sixteen years this collection will be of great interest to students and scholars of international relations theory political thought and political philosophy
