

SAMPLE IPA LESSON PLAN
Standard #5 (Reflective Thinking)
Grade One

A Topic Sentence

40 minutes

25-28 Students

Objectives:

Students will be able to explain that the topic sentence introduces the main idea of a paragraph.
Students will be able to write a topic sentence.

Introduction:

I will begin by playing a guessing game with the students. I will then describe an animal to the students. I will not tell the students what animal I am describing. I will just describe specific features about the animal. When the students finally guess what the animal is I will explain to them that what I was doing was giving them details about an animal and they had to guess: the specific animal. I will then explain to the students that in a paragraph you are doing a similar process, but instead of writing the description of the subject you are talking about first, you introduce your subject the first sentence of the paragraph and your description is presented in the following sentences.

Procedure:

I will begin by writing the word Topic Sentence on the board. Then I will ask someone to read the phrase. I will then proceed to give the children an explanation of what a topic sentence is and how it pertains to a paragraph, and how it introduces the detailed sentences that fills a paragraph through several activities.

Activity 1: The first activity will involve the students looking at a sample paragraph at the front of the classroom that does not have a topic sentence. I will ask one student to read the paragraph out loud to the class.

Sample Paragraph:

I was very happy because I got to stay home from school. My mom took my temperature and said I had a fever. My mom gave me lots of medicine, and I stayed in bed for the rest of the day. I watched cartoons for most of the day and then I fell asleep. When I woke up it was the next day and I felt much better. My Mom decided that I could return to school today.

I will then say to the class:

This paragraph is missing a topic sentence? Together we are going to write a topic sentence.

What is the main idea of this paragraph?

*Response: Being sick.

What do you think the topic sentence might be?

Response: Yesterday I was sick.

What are some keywords or clues in the detailed sentences that helped you figure out the topic sentence?

I was very happy because I got to stay home from school. My mom took
