Brown, Herman J. van der Merwe, 2015-10-14 This book constitutes the proceedings of the 14th International Conference on Mobile and Contextual Learning mLearn 2015 held in a cruise ship leaving from and arriving to Venice Italy in October 2015 The 22 revised full papers and 6 short papers presented were carefully reviewed and selected from 81 submissions The papers deal with the topics related to the theme of the conference The mobile learning voyage from small ripples to massive open waters The conference theme paid tribute to the developments that brought mobile learning from its infancy steps in the early 2000s to maturity in 2015 while simultaneously paving the way for the broad and open waters ahead with new developments and progress in mobile learning and emerging ambient technologies Assessing Academic Literacy in a Multilingual Society Albert Weideman, John Read, Theo du Plessis, 2020-11-02 South African universities face major challenges in meeting the needs of their students in the area of academic language and literacy The dominant medium of instruction in the universities is English and to a much lesser extent Afrikaans but only a minority of the national population are native speakers of these languages Nine other languages can be media of instruction in schools which makes the transition to tertiary education difficult enough in itself for students from these schools The focus of this book is on procedures for assessing the academic language and literacy levels and needs of students not in order to exclude students from higher education but rather to identify those who would benefit from further development of their ability in order to undertake their degree studies successfully The volume also aims to bring the innovative solutions designed by South African educators to a wider international audience Higher education in a globalising world Peter Mayo, 2019-07-04 This book focuses on current policy discourse in Higher Education with special reference to Europe It discusses globalisation Lifelong Learning the EU s Higher Education discourse this discourse s regional ramifications and alternative practices in Higher Education from both the minority and majority worlds with their different learning traditions and epistemologies It argues that these alternative practices could well provide the germs for the shape of a public good oriented Higher Education for the future It theoretically expounds on important elements to consider when engaging Higher Education and communities discussing the nature of the term community itself Special reference is accorded to the difference that lies at the core of these ever changing communities It then provides an analysis of an on the ground project in University community engagement before suggesting signposts for further action at the level of policy and provision

Languages, Identities and Intercultural Communication in South Africa and Beyond Russell H Kaschula, 2021-08-23 African countries and South Africa in particular being multilingual and multicultural societies make for exciting sociolinguistic and applied language analysis in order to tease out the complex relationship between language and identity This book applies sociolinguistic theory as well as critical language awareness and translanguaging with its many facets to various communicative scenarios both on the continent and in South Africa in an accessible and practical way Africa lends itself to such sociolinguistic analysis concerning language identity and intercultural communication This book reflects consciously on the North South debate and the need for us to create our own ways of interpretation emanating from the South and speaking back to the North and on issues that pertain to the South including southern Africa Aspects such as language and power language planning policy and implementation culture prejudice social interaction translanguaging intercultural communication education gender and autoethnography are covered This is a valuable resource for students studying African sociolinguistics language and identity and applied language studies Anyone interested in the relationship between language and society on the African continent would also find the book easily accessible

Language Contact. Volume 2 Jeroen Darquennes, Joseph C. Salmons, Wim Vandenbussche, 2025-04-21 Targeting a full range of students and scholars this volume provides a total of 50 chapters illustrating the linguistic dynamics and the dynamics of inter individual and societal language contact as well as the dynamics of multidisciplinary language contact studies Fueled by a wealth of data from a rich variety of contact situations its geographically balanced case studies are governed by the triangulation between a focus on language structure and change a sincere drive of sociopolitical and academic agency and the confrontation with an everyday reality that can be unkind to and ignorant of those two factors The volume clearly demonstrates the social relevance of our trade in a time burdened with ecolinguistic challenges
