

Squealer in Animal Farm

Squealer lied to the animals about what happened to Boxer and tried to portray Napoleon as a kind and benevolent leader who would help any animal in need. Thus, this shows that Squealer is loyal to Napoleon. Squealer is scheming. Squealer told the animals that Boxer's last words were his sole sorrow was to have passed on before the windmill was finished. Squealer lied to the animals as he was afraid that the animals would not want to continue to work on the farm after Boxer has died. He did this to ensure that the animals would continue working on the windmill and do what Napoleon wanted.

Squealer also told the animals that Boxer said "Long Live Comrade Napoleon. Napoleon is always right." Since Squealer knows that the animals look up to Boxer as their role model, he uses it to his advantage to tell the animals to follow Boxer's maxims. Thus, the animals will trust Napoleon more. Thus, this shows that Squealer is scheming. Squealer is persuasive. When Squealer was talking about Boxer's death, Squealer lifted his trotter to wipe away a tear. This evidence shows that Squealer is trying to show how upset over Boxer's death.

By showing his emotional side, he is trying to arouse the animals and sway their emotions to favor Napoleon. The animals were "enormously relieved to hear this" and "their last thoughts disappeared". This further shows how Squealer was able to convince the animals into thinking that Boxer was well cared for by Napoleon. The animals might even be grateful to Napoleon for caring for Boxer. Thus, this shows that Squealer is persuasive. What roles does Squealer play in Animal Farm? Squealer is Napoleon's right-hand man.

When Snowball was chased out of the farm by Napoleon, Squealer was sent to talk to the animals and told the animals "to appreciate the sacrifice Napoleon had made in by taking upon this extra labor upon himself." Squealer is trying to defend and justify Napoleon's actions of chasing Snowball out of the farm and to clear the doubts that the animals had about Napoleon. Squealer is also trying to get the animals to sympathize with Napoleon. The animals might even be grateful for the "sacrifice" that Napoleon made.

When there was unrest among the animals when the 4th amendment was broken, Squealer was sent to tell them that "the rules were against sheets, not beds. You would have us too tired to carry out our duties?" Squealer tried to convince the animals that Napoleon needed rest. Time and again, Squealer has jumped to Napoleon's defense and to prevent a rebellion of the animals on Napoleon in the farm. Thus, this shows that Squealer is a propagandist. The animals did not totally agree when the pigs decided to take the milk and apples for themselves.

Squealer was sent to talk to them and said "Do you now what would happen if we pigs failed in our duty? Jones would come back!" Squealer is
