

This summer Portland East Young Life plans to take 90 high school and middle school kids, and their leaders, to Washington Family Ranch's summer camps, to experience the best week of their lives. During this week these kids will be able to deepen their relationships with their leaders, eat family style meals, and experience adventure. The time kids spent at camp usually changes the course of their life, for the better. This change isn't cheap to come by though.

A week at camp costs $400 for middle school students and $500 for high school students. Please consider helping one of these kids experience the relationship and connection they need to develop into their potential, and let us thank you by representing your business or organization on the back of the t-shirts that we make for camp.
