Reflections on the Nigerian Civil War: a Call for Realism Raph Uwechue,1969 Kuta Bato Fernando Roxas

Arcenas,1977 Afrikanistische Arbeitspapiere ,2000 Gnosis and the Question of Thought in Vedānta J.G.

Arapura,2012-12-06 It would probably be generally admitted that Vedanta is the apex of the Indian or Eastern religious philosophies Yet today it commands so little attention in part no doubt because the modern mood in scholarship refuses anchoring and centering of thought The present work seeks to address modern thought though not in the modern mood It is nevertheless motivated by the belief that there are times when the timeless is most timely It is possible that the sources of a tradition such as Vedanta if approached properly will yield something which can be brought within the ambience of the contemporary philosophical quest at least of its still largely unmanifest undercurrents The present work is intended to be an act imperfect as it is in that direction That marks the difference of this project called Gnosis and the Question of Thought in Vedanta from customary studies in Indology The term gnosis as employed in this context is a translation of its cognate Sanskrit term jñāna the latter however having a much wider range of meaning than the former especially in view of the latter's appropriation for a specific usage by the Gnostic traditions of both the East and the West In the general expression of Vedanta too the Gnostic understanding of jñāna has undoubtedly persisted especially in the so called jñāna marga or way of gnosis made popular from early medieval times on Sociobiology vs Socioecology Sejin Park,Georges

Guille-Escuret,2017-06-26 As a theory sociobiology is opposed to socio ecology a discipline hampered since its birth The indictment of the ideological intentions of the first has obscured the notion that the growing domination of the image of the selfish gene has obstructed the necessary rise of the second For 40 years a terrible force of inertia has thus frozen the global analysis of socio ecological interactions outside the theoretical bias externally imposed on social sciences by so called behavioral ecology which amounts to a simple emanation of sociobiology This book summarizes the methodological abuses and the illusory legitimations of a school whose sterility can no longer be concealed but which is preparing to reinvent itself by cynically replacing its faltering laws by hijacking the recent advances in epigenetics The authors shed light on unjustly sacrificed paths in the study of socio ecological interactions Nihongi ,1896 ENGLISH FOR INTERNATIONAL
