

Lost on the Trail

Story By: Judie Eberhardt

Scott was so excited to be going on the summer day camp trip to the woods. His group was going to fish, float on a raft, and spend two nights sleeping in a tent. All the things boys his age love to do and no little sister to bother him.

After arriving at camp, some of the boys wanted to go with Mr. Allen fishing, and some of the boys went on a raft with Mr. Willard. Scott said he was going fishing. "All of you that are going fishing stay with me," said Mr. Allen. Tony, Joey, Mike, and Scott were the ones that chose fishing. Larry, Eddie, and Jason wanted to go on the raft. They left with Mr. Willard. The boys gathered up their fishing poles and baskets to hold the fish they were sure they were going to catch. They started down the trail toward the lake. Lake Amber was about a half mile down the trail. The boys arrived at the lake quickly; however when they got there, Scott was not with them. "Where's Scott?" Mr. Allen asked the other boys. "He was right behind me," said Tony. "We did move ahead for a little while," said Joey. Mr. Allen became very worried and started shouting, "Scott, Scott!" No answer. Scott suddenly found himself lost on the trail leading to Lake Amber. I only looked away for a minute, he thought to himself. How could I be lost? Scott decided to turn around and go back the way he came. He remembered the direction to the lake was south. He also remembered he had his compass from his last Boy Scout trip in his pocket. He took out his compass and realized he had been going north. Scott started down the trail in the opposite direction. As he did, he yelled, "Mr. Allen, Joey, Mike." Mike thought he heard someone yelling his name and tried to listen closely. Mr. Allen heard it too. Everyone stayed together and headed to where they heard the voice calling to them. All of a sudden, Scott jumped out from behind a tree and said, "I am so glad to see you guys!" "What happened?" asked the boys and Mr. Allen. "I was looking at the trees." "I must have made a wrong turn," said Scott. "When I realized what happened, you were gone." "Well, we're here now," said Mr. Allen. "Let's make sure we stay together." "Okay," the boys said and headed back to the lake to catch some fish for dinner.

Verbal Protocols of Reading Michael Pressley, Peter Afflerbach, 2012-12-06 Researchers from a variety of disciplines have collected verbal protocols of reading as a window on conscious reading processes Because such work has occurred in different disciplines many who have conducted verbal protocol analyses have been unaware of the research of others This volume brings together the existing literature from the various fields in which verbal protocols of reading have been generated In so doing the authors provide an organized catalog of all conscious verbal processes reported in studies to date the most complete analysis of conscious reading now available in the literature When the results of all of the studies are considered there is clear support for a number of models of reading comprehension including reader response theories schema perspectives executive processing models and bottom up approaches such as the one proposed by van Dijk and Kintsch The summary of results also demonstrates that none of the existing models goes far enough Thus a new framework constructively responsive reading is described This new model encompasses reader response schematic and executive processing and induction from word and phrase level comprehension to higher order meaning The important concept in this new model is that readers respond to bits and pieces of text as they are encountered all as part of the overarching goal of constructing meaning from text This volume also includes a critical review of the thinking aloud methodology as it has been used thus far This examination suggests that it continues to be an immature methodology and that much work is needed if a complete theory of conscious processing during reading is to be developed via verbal protocol analysis Finally after reviewing what has been accomplished to date the authors provide extensive discussion of the work that remains to be done and the adequacy of the verbal protocol methodology for permitting telling conclusions about text processing

Informal Assessment and Instruction in Written Language Nancy Mather, Rhia Roberts, 1995 Wisconsin Library Bulletin, 1981 Short Stories by Short People Daniel Fisher, 2001-10-15 This collection of stories by young authors covers a wide range of fiction and nonfiction topics Here is a sampling of works The track looked like a huge water slide built of ancient wooden scaffolding Instead of a plastic trough and running water it was a bed of twisting glistening ice Now I could see that a sixty foot run after making a huge curve merged into a forty foot run Then the run made multiple turns before one final downward plunge For a second it seemed miraculous that the track wasn't littered with broken bodies I climbed the steep stairs to the lowest run and waited I felt nauseous and hoped no one could tell I was a little scared Too soon it was my turn There was no escape I positioned myself on the sled I fought panic while waiting for the operator to give me the go signal Off I went with my heart skipping a few beats The wind whipped against my face from Polar Bear Camping It's 6:50 a.m. I know this time all too well The ritual has begun My mom climbs the steps of the ladder to my top bunk to tickle my feet a tactile alarm clock Oh it's Thursday not just any day of the week It's the day when exhaustion and fatigue will rule me and my only salvation will be a special place on the most comfortable sofa in the family room where the angle of the television screen is just right and the pillows outline the shape of my body I call this place THE SPOT from The Perfect Spot Aaron awoke disoriented and confused Then suddenly he recognized his surroundings and remembered his fall He quickly thanked god that he landed in bushes and was only bruised and scratched He quickly looked down at his watch it was 8:00 in the morning He realized that his friends were gone THEY THOUGHT HE WAS DEAD He knew that to survive he needed his pack He looked up and started to climb without ropes from Lost in the Australian Outback Suddenly the ghost appeared and looked around the room impatiently Where is that girl when I need her The ghost listened carefully and heard a gurgling sound She went through the wall and gently tapped Kary's shoulder Kary turned around and screamed although the foam coating her mouth muffled her scream She slowly picked up her cup and gurgled while staring at the ghost cautiously from One's Pride is One's Courage The Tooth Fairy wasn't pretty at all Her nose was warty and pointy Her hair was gray and greasy Then all of a sudden the Tooth Fairy picked up Cindy's favorite blanket from her grandmother and started to run away The Tooth Fairy dashed to the window and Cindy raced after her She could hear her heart beat so fast She didn't feel shy at that moment at all she just had to catch the Tooth Fairy She just had to get that blanket back from The Tooth Fairy I don't exactly believe in ghosts or monsters but I strongly believe that there are strange creatures out there that no one knows about I've heard their cries many times especially when lying in my bed at night Sometimes thinking about the strange creatures gives me the shivers up my spine There is no use in calling my mother or father when I'm scared because they never believe me of course All they say are things like There are no strange creatures making noises Becca It's just your runaway imagination Or We can have your ears checked next week from The Grand Adventure He galloped down an alley only to be cut off by a large black wall The wall seemed to balk and shift Then he realized it was not totally black but had small planet like dots that co
