Shepherds of the Steppes Mark D. Wood,2023-06-01 The evangelical Mongolian church has experienced significant growth since the country opened to the world in 1990 Despite the growth and emergence of the evangelical church in Mongolia relatively little has been written on the church from the perspective of the leaders themselves This ethnographic study seeks to express the experience of male evangelical Mongolian church leaders in their own words The book focuses specifically on the leaders experiences of conversion discipleship navigation of Mongolian culture and traditions and theological education Readers will hear from evangelical church leaders why they became Christians and what their experience with discipleship was like for them The issue of contextualization for evangelical Christians is also a central focus In particular the translation of the term for God in Mongolian and the perspective of the church leaders are explored This book will be of interest to those exploring Christianity in Asia and post socialist contexts as well as seeking to better understand contemporary Mongolian culture Case Studies in Spiritual Coaching DeeAnna Merz Nagel,Madison Leigh Akridge,2023-11-06 The proposed text addresses a major problem in teaching and informing practitioners and trainees about the application of spirituality within the field of coaching Its purpose is to inform the coaching profession about how spirituality is being utilized by various coaches across the life wellness and executive coach domains The goals are to provide definitions applications ethical considerations and speculation on the future of the profession on a wide range of applications

The content of the book will be a succinct series of case studies while providing cutting edge tools and interventions for the coaching profession Both editors are certified coaches as well as licensed mental health practitioners in the counseling and social work fields The goal of this book is to offer guidance for the coach whose client brings direct or indirect spiritual content into the coaching session Each chapter highlights established coach skills such as active listening powerful questioning and goal setting The text brings together both seasoned spiritual coaches who have influenced this new and growing area coaching profession and new spiritual coaches who bring their own diverse knowledge The contributors describe their work in a diverse array of case studies with their wide range of backgrounds and approaches so that others can learn Case Studies in Spiritual Coaching can be used as a primary text for courses that teach spiritual or intuitive coaching and or courses that teach any coaching domain such as life coaching wellness coaching or executive coaching This book may also be used as an adjunct text for courses that include an introduction to spirituality within the coaching profession

Kingdom People Living by Kingdom Principles Dr. Dalton Jenkins,2013-07-08 We do not have to travel to some foreign country to locate the mission field Right here literally in our backyards the world has come to us The church's basic mission is to preach the gospel of the kingdom of God this message has social and political aspects to its application This is the fundamental responsibility of the church This message is holistic and affects the total person As the church develops a comprehensive and practical understanding of missions this will propel Christians to act out their missional call The challenge as to how to be truly missional requires those people considered to be disciples to engage their communities in their everyday lives To capture the full essence of missions this book introduces a process called strategic evangelism This process serves to raise awareness by helping to clarify the nature of the structures and practices of the church relating to its missional focus to develop a better awareness of local missions and to introduce a process that will assist people to live out the mission by engaging their communities
