

MARK SCHEME for the October/November 2007 question paper

0471 TRAVEL AND TOURISM

Paper 2 (Alternative to Coursework), maximum raw mark 100

This mark scheme is published as an aid to teachers and candidates, to indicate the requirements of the examination. It shows the basis on which Examiners were instructed to award marks. It does not indicate the details of the discussions that took place at an Examiners' meeting before marking began.

All Examiners are instructed that alternative correct answers and unexpected approaches in candidates' scripts must be given marks that fairly reflect the relevant knowledge and skills demonstrated.

0471 TRAVEL AND TOURISM PAST PAPER

- CIE will not enter into discussions or correspondence in connection with these mark schemes.

CIE is publishing the mark schemes for the October/November 2007 question papers for most IGCSE, GCE Advanced Level and Advanced Subsidiary Level syllabuses and some Ordinary Level syllabuses.

Quality-of-Life Community Indicators for Parks, Recreation and Tourism Management Megha Budruk, Rhonda Phillips, 2010-11-25 While community quality of life indicators are gaining much needed attention in both scholarly work and practice their application in the areas of parks recreation and tourism management are not as well known The applicability of indicator systems for natural resource and natural resource area management within the parks and recreation arena is very high including urban parks and recreation programs and their influence on quality of life Tourism is also an area that needs much more work in terms of assessing impacts as well as developing indicators for gauging progress in the long term All three areas are an integrated discipline and most programs throughout the developed world are housed jointly There are several researchers across the globe who are conducting innovative work in these areas The editors feel that a volume on the topic will spur additional interests as well as serve to lead the research efforts

The Mexico Competitiveness Report 2009, High School Days Dr. Ross Gordon Cooper, 2019-08-02 High school days in Africa were ones of challenge hard work and fun I attended a total four high schools commencing Form 1 at Vainona High School Forms 3 at Benoni and Churchill High Schools and sixth form college at ILSA During my time I faced many struggles and adjustments but throughout my high school era I never failed a public exam ZJC O AS and A Levels and Maths Olympiad I also took a keen interest in sport and clubs In particular I represented my schools in innumerable chess tournaments There were also the times of flirting and romance Punishments included the cane manual labour and detention Suspension and expulsions were only for very serious offences I hope that this book brings back high school memories to each reader

The Study of Tourism Richard Sharpley, 2011-01-28 Over the last two decades tourism has become firmly established as a recognized field of study and the focus of extensive academic research There has been continual expansion in the provision of taught programmes at undergraduate and postgraduate level dramatic developments in the tourism literature and a growing community of tourism academics Despite this explosion in the study of tourism however it is still struggling to achieve wider academic legitimacy it remains to some extent divorced from the industry upon which it is focuses and even within its academic ranks there remains uncertainty over its role and future direction This volume aims to critically explore this paradoxical situation and to consider the future direction of the study of tourism It charts the development of tourism as an area of study analyzing approaches taken from an international context it critiques contemporary epistemologies of tourism framed around the social science vs management dichotomy and offers alternative approaches to the study of tourism In doing so it engages directly with a range of important academic debates what tourism is in an academic context the purpose of studying tourism and how it should be studied in the future This important and stimulating volume will have global appeal to higher level students academics and researchers within tourism and related disciplines

Improving Foreign Language Teaching Ernesto Macaro, Suzanne Graham, Robert Woore, 2015-09-16 Improving Foreign Language Teaching provides teachers and teacher trainers with a research based structure for the effective teaching and assessment of second languages As well as outlining a model for teacher development the book identifies and exemplifies eight key principles for effective language learning which can be used to guide curriculum design and decisions about classroom pedagogy Improving Foreign Language Teaching also presents practical activities related materials and guidance on how student progress can be monitored and recorded Based on the research of the authors and other international experts together with the work of a consortium established by the authors and teachers in a range of secondary schools the book focusses on the development of language skills and communicative competence It also proposes an assessment system which better reflects how learners progress in language learning than current models Taking as its starting point the challenge of a curriculum in flux and complex pedagogical approaches this book offers clear research informed guidance for effective planning teaching and learning It will be essential reading for all those concerned with the improvement of language learning and teaching in the secondary classroom
