Redeployment By Phil Klay:

Redeployment Phil Klay, 2014-03-06 Powerful Barack Obama Searing New York Times How do you comfort a man who has just lost his best friend How does it feel to see fear in your wife's eyes What does it mean to come home In one of the most acclaimed and celebrated collections of stories for years Redeployment takes readers to the frontlines of the wars in Iraq asking us to understand what happened there and what happened to the soldiers who returned Redeployment Perfection Learning Corporation, 2019 Longing for an Absent God Nick Ripatrazone, 2020-03-03 Longing for an Absent God unveils the powerful role of faith and doubt in the American literary tradition Nick Ripatrazone explores how two major strands of Catholic writers practicing and cultural intertwine and sustain each other Ripatrazone explores the writings of devout American Catholic writers in the years before the Second Vatican Council through the work of Flannery O'Connor J.F. Powers and Walker Percy those who were raised Catholic but drifted from the church such as the Catholic educated Don DeLillo and Cormac McCarthy the convert Toni Morrison the Mass going Thomas Pynchon and the ritual driven Louise Erdrich and a new crop of faithful American Catholic writers including Ron Hansen Phil Klay and Alice McDermott who write Catholic stories for our contemporary world These critically acclaimed and award-winning voices illustrate that Catholic storytelling is innately powerful and appealing to both secular and religious audiences Longing for an Absent God demonstrates the profound differences in the storytelling styles and results of these two groups of major writers but ultimately shows how taken together they offer a rich and unique American literary tradition that spans the full spectrum of doubt and faith Phil Klay's Redeployment and War Rhetoric as Literature for Use Kathryn Sullivan Abbott, 2023 This essay focuses on Phil Klay's collection of short stories about the Iraq War Redeployment as a piece of war rhetoric I examine it as a proponent of serious engagement with war and explicate the text specifically as it discusses disconnect I will discuss disconnect in greater detail shortly but first allow me to suggest that the consideration of war literature like Klay's as persuasive rhetoric is important because of the degree to which it informs civilians' perceptions and opinions

Docu-Fictions of War Tatiana Prorokova, 2019-05-01 Historical writing and fiction are not the same thing though historians often creatively manipulate material in imposing plot structures selecting starting and ending points and fashioning compelling literary characters from historical figures In Docu Fictions of War Tatiana Prorokova argues that the opposite is also true war fiction offers a kind of history that both documents its subjects and provides a snapshot of the cultural representation of the United States most recent military involvements She covers a largely neglected body of cinematic and literary texts about the First Gulf War the Balkan War the Afghanistan War and the Iraq War to open a fresh analysis of cultural texts on war Prorokova contends that these texts are not pure fiction but docu fictions works of imagination that can document their subjects while disclosing the social political and historical link between war and culture during the last three decades Docu Fictions of War analyzes how these representational narratives have highlighted a humanitarian rationale behind American involvement in each war whether the stated goals were to free the oppressed from tyranny stop genocide or rid the world of terrorism The book explores the gap between history what allegedly happened and the cultural mythology that is both true and inexact tangible and sensed recognized and undocumented The Cambridge Companion to the American Short Story Michael J. Collins, Gavin Jones, 2023-05-25 Comprising new work by leading scholars this book traces the history of American short fiction and provides original avenues for research Affective Ecocriticism Kyle Bladow, Jennifer Ladino, 2018-11-01 Scholars of ecocriticism have long tried to articulate emotional relationships to environments Only recently however have they begun to draw on the complex interdisciplinary body of research known as affect theory Affective Ecocriticism takes as its premise that ecocritical scholarship has much to gain from the rich work on affect and emotion happening within social and cultural theory geography psychology philosophy queer theory feminist theory narratology and neuroscience among others This vibrant and important volume imagines a more affective and consequently more effective ecocriticism as well as a more environmentally attuned affect studies These interdisciplinary essays model a range of approaches to emotion and affect in considering a variety of primary texts including short story collections films poetry curricular programs and contentious geopolitical locales such as Canada's Tar Sands Several chapters deal skeptically with familiar environmentalist affects like love hope resilience and optimism others consider what are often understood as negative emotions such as anxiety disappointment and homesickness all with an eye toward reinvigorating or reconsidering their utility for the environmental humanities and environmentalism Affective Ecocriticism offers an accessible approach to this theoretical intersection that will speak to readers across multiple disciplinary and geographic locations The Hero and the Victim Gregory Brazeal, 2024-10-08 How American fiction represents soldiers and soldier criminality in depictions of the Iraq War Disquiet on the Western Front Laurel Brett, 2016-08-17 This groundbreaking study looks at the evolution of the war novel tracing the movement from the modernist novel that followed World War I to the postmodernist novel that followed World War II The book uses close readings of iconic literary texts such as Catch 22 and Slaughterhouse Five to discover the origins of the postmodern zeitgeist It concludes that postmodern narratives employing devices such as collage and pastiche and the fragmentation of the postmodern protagonist are a reaction to the vast scale of technological warfare and its accompanying atrocities This study also looks at Vietnam War novels such as the novels of Tim O'Brien and demonstrates their debt to post World War II novels and the postmodern zeitgeist It concludes with an investigation of recent texts and asks if the postmodern novel is being replaced by older more traditional narrative strategies or is simply on hiatus and will return to influence in future texts The War Comes with You Stacey Peebles, 2024-12-12 How do we tell twenty first century war stories when the wars seem to go on forever In the post 2011 surge of war stories published in America and Iraq the defining characteristic is the depiction of combat violence that crosses borders overtakes civilian spaces and disrupts chronology In The War Comes with You Enduring War in Life Fiction and Fantasy Stacey Peebles picks up where her groundbreaking first book Welcome to the Suck Narrating the American Soldier's Experience in Iraq left off Via careful readings of fiction memoir and poetry by writers such as Ben Fountain Siobhan Fallon Brian Turner and Hassan Blasim as well as recent superhero and Star Wars films Peebles argues that in the face of real and fantasy forever wars things fall apart Language identities bodies and even the stories themselves fragment These narratives suggest that people need not accept incoherence and there is a range of meaningful responses to the experience of everywhere all the time war Peebles illustrates what to do that is when war comes with you Acts of Faith and Imagination Brent Little, Mark Bosco, SJ, 2023-08-04 Acts of Faith and Imagination wagers that fiction written by Catholic authors assists readers to reflect critically on the question what is faith To speak of a person's faith life is to speak of change and development As a narrative form literature can illustrate the dynamics of faith which remains in flux over the course of one's life Because human beings must possess faith in something whether religious or not it inevitably has a narrative structure faith ebbs and flows flourishes and decays develops and stagnates Through an exploration of more than a dozen Catholic authors novels and short stories Brent Little argues that Catholic fiction encourages the reader to reflect upon their faith holistically that is the way faith informs one's affections and how a person conceives and interacts with the world as embodied beings Amidst the diverse stories of modern and contemporary fiction a consistent pattern emerges Catholic fiction portrays faith at its most fundamental often unconscious level as an act of the imagination Faith is the way one imagines themselves others and creation A person's primary faith conditions how they live in the world regardless of the level of conscious reflection and regardless of whether this is a religious faith Acts of Faith and Imagination investigates the creative depth and vitality of the Catholic literary imagination by bringing late modern Catholic authors into dialogue with more contemporary ones Readers will then consider well known works such as those by Graham Greene Flannery O'Connor and Muriel Spark in the fresh light of contemporary stories by Toni Morrison Alice McDermott Uwem Akpan and several others

Missionaries Phil Klay, 2020-10-29 Expansive explosive and epic Marlon James A courageous book New York Times Book Review A BARACK OBAMA BOOK OF THE YEAR 2020 Neither Mason a US Special Forces medic nor Lisette a foreign correspondent has emerged from America's long wars in Iraq and Afghanistan unscathed Yet for them war still exerts a terrible draw the noble calling the camaraderie the life and death stakes Where else in the world can such a person go All roads lead to Colombia where the US has partnered with the local government to stamp out a vicious civil war and keep the predatory narco gangs at bay Mason is ready for the good war and Lisette is more than ready to cover it The Best American Nonrequired Reading 2012 Dave Eggers, 2012 A selection of the best writing including fiction nonfiction poetry comics and blogs published during 2011 Edited by Dave Eggers Writing Through the Body. Iraqi Responses to the War on Terror Hanan Jasim Khammas, 2023-12-21 The 2003 Iraq invasion provoked an unprecedented phenomenon in the Iraqi literary scene fiction exceeds poetry in production critical reception and market figures New narrative genres concerned with stories of wars and trauma depict corporality and sexuality in their most material sense Writing Through the Body argues that interest in the physical indicates a new perception of corporeality and to show this it traces a genealogy of the Iraqi body to uncover the complexity of its historical and socio political discourses Considering religious social and political factors the body is examined in three semiospheres Iraqi society and culture before 2003 the discourse of the war on terror as a semiotic interference and contemporary Iraqi fiction as the result of the encounter between the two This structure shows how corporeality was interrupted by and instrumentalised in war propaganda and how new representations in fiction respond to the two spheres in conflict

The Cambridge Companion to American Literature and the Body Travis M. Foster, 2022-06-30 This volume offers a rigorous yet accessible overview of the key questions and intersectional approaches pertaining to American literature and the body The chapters have been written in an accessible style making them useful for undergraduates as well as for more experienced researchers

The State and the Soldier Kori Schake, 2025-07-21 America's Founding Fathers feared that a standing army would be a permanent political danger yet the U S military has in the 250 years since become a bulwark of democracy Kori Schake explains why in this compelling history of civil military relations from independence to the challenges of the present The book begins with General Washington's vital foundational example of subordination to elected leaders during the Revolutionary War Schake recounts numerous instances in the following century when charismatic military leaders tried to challenge political leaders and explains the emergence of restrictions on uses of the military for domestic law enforcement She explores the crucial struggle between President Andrew Johnson and Congress after Lincoln's assassination when Ulysses Grant had to choose whether to obey the Commander in Chief or the law and chose to obey the law And she shows how the professionalization of the military in the twentieth century inculcated norms of civilian control The U S military is historically anomalous for maintaining its strength and popularity while never becoming a threat to democracy Schake concludes by asking if its admirable record can be sustained when the public is pulling the military into the political divisions of our time

Gender for the Warfare State Robin Truth Goodman, 2016-10-14 Gender for the Warfare State is the first scholarly investigation into the written works of U S women combat veterans in twenty first century wars Most recent studies quantify military participation showing how many women participate in armed services and what their experiences are in a traditionally male institution Many of these treatments regard women as victims solely of enemy fire even as they are also often victims of their own military apparatus and of their own involvement in global aggression By applying literary analysis to a sociological question Gender for the Warfare State views women's experiences through story and literary traditions that carry meaning into present practices Goodman shows that women in combat are not just entering and being victimized in male institutions but are also actively changing the story of gender and thus the structure of power that is constructed through gender Moreover this book unveils a new narrative of care that affects economic relations more broadly and the contemporary politics of the liberal social contract Women's participation in combat is not just a U S event but global and therefore has a deeper historical range than current sociological accounts imply The book compares the political contexts of women's entry into war now with their prior twentieth century contributions to wars in other cultural settings and then uses this comparison to show a variety of meanings at play in the gender of war The Oxford History of the Novel in English Cyrus R. K. Patell, Deborah Lindsay Williams, 2024 An overview of US fiction since 1940 that explores the history of literary forms the history of narrative forms the history of the book the history of media and the history of higher education in the United States The Spectre of Defeat in Post-War British and US Literature David Owen, Cristina Pividori, 2021-01-22 It is a commonplace belief that history is written by the victorious However less recognised but equally common is the idea that the defeated also write history even if their particular account is rather different This collection looks at these matters from a novel and distinct perspective It essentially presents the idea that victors often perceive themselves as defeated by examining the ways in which the idea of defeat comes to dominate the victors own sense of superiority and achievement thereby undermining the certainties that victory is conventionally thought to create The contributions here discuss fiction mostly UK and US published since the First World War Through the frameworks of experience memory and post memory they examine this subliminal defeat basically as seen in conflict itself in the societies that it affects and in the individual lives of those who it destroys The result is an innovative literary account of the victorious yet somehow defeated Conflict Neil D. Shortland, Laurence J. Alison, Joseph M. Moran, 2019-01-02 Conflict How Soldiers Make Impossible Decisions is about making hard choices where all outcomes are potentially negative The authors draw on interviews conducted with soldiers about the situations they faced and the decisions they made at war These are vivid and sometimes distressing stories They form the data from which the authors explore the cognitive processes associated with choice commitment to action and sometimes error as well as goal directed thinking innovation and courage By referring to real cases Conflict invites readers to consider their own responses under extreme circumstances and ask themselves how they would choose between difficult options In doing so this book will go some way to helping readers understand what it feels like when choosing between least worst decisions
