Poetry as Testimony Antony Rowland, 2014-03-26 This book analyzes Holocaust poetry war poetry working class poetry and 9 11 poetry as forms of testimony Rowland argues that testamentary poetry requires a different approach to traditional ways of dealing with poems due to the pressure of the metatext the original traumatic events the poems demands for the hyper attentiveness of the reader and a paradox of identification that often draws the reader towards identifying with the poet's experience but then reminds them of its sublimity He engages with the work of a diverse range of twentieth century authors and across the literature of several countries even uncovering new archival material The study ends with an analysis of the poetry of 9 11 engaging with the idea that it typifies a new era of testimony where global secondary witnesses react to a proliferation of media images This book ranges across the literature of several countries cultures and historical events in order to stress the large variety of contexts in which poetry has functioned productively as a form of testimony and to note the importance of the availability of translations to the formation of literary canons

Montaging Pushkin Alexandra Smith, 2006-01-01 Montaging Pushkin offers for the first time a coherent view of Pushkin's legacy to Russian twentieth century poetry giving many new insights Pushkin is shown to be a Russian forerunner of Baudelaire Furthermore it is argued that the rise of the Russian and European novel largely changed the ways Russian poets have looked at themselves and at poetic language that novelisation of poetry is detectable in the major works of poetry that engaged in a creative dialogue with Pushkin and that polyphonic lyric has been achieved Alexandra Smith locates significant examples of Pushkin's cinematographic cognition of reality suggesting that such dynamic descriptions of Petersburg helped create a highly original animated image of the city as comic apocalypse which followers of Pushkin appropriated very successfully even as far as the late twentieth century Montaging Pushkin will be of interest to all students of Russian poetry as well as specialists in literary theory European studies and the history of ideas

Making Progress in Writing Eve

Bearne, 2003-08-29 Children's achievements in writing lag behind their achievements in reading speaking and listening National tests are beginning to expose this gap and inevitably it is raising concerns The issue is not without controversy but regardless of the politics of the situation national progress in children's writing is both needed and possible This new book from Eve Bearne makes a valuable contribution towards helping teachers close this gap Uniquely it follows the structure of the National Literacy Strategy whilst examining key areas such as bridging KS2 and KS3 writing and writing skills beyond the Literacy Hour Such a structure makes the book incredibly practical and easy to use providing essential information for both practitioners and academics Journal of Asian American Studies, 2000 Challenging Contextuality, 2024-07-31

Challenging Contextuality Bibles and Biblical Scholarship in Context provides a new and innovative contribution to the study of biblical texts by bringing together current approaches to biblical interpretation The volume sets the agenda for the future of the field and provides a synthesis of approaches to date In doing so it aligns itself with the broadly shared hermeneutical conviction that contextuality is a catalyst for interpretation This applies in equal measure to approaches and methods that are often framed as traditional or mainstream e.g. the methodological canon of the historical critical approach as the offspring of the European Enlightenment and those that are often dubbed contextual e.g. forms of feminist or indigenous interpretation The volume grounds contextual biblical interpretation within the broader landscape of biblical studies and the chapters are all interested in the contexts in which bibles are read Rather than a series of examples of contextual biblical interpretation this book is concerned with what it means to do contextual biblical interpretation how contextual biblical interpretation challenges biblical scholarship and what chances there are for this mode of inquiry What contexts are engaged and elucidated when it comes to bible use What contexts are made visible and invisible How can different contexts be theorized and understood The volume argues that it is not context that matters rather contemporary contexts should be a challenge and a chance for biblical scholarship its present and its future Chewing Over the West Doris Jedamski, 2009

The orientation of academic institutions has in recent years been moving away from highly specialized area studies in the classical sense towards broader regional and comparative studies Cultural studies points to the limitation of Western approaches to non Western cultures a development not yet reflected in actual research and data collections Bringing together scholars from all over the world with specialized knowledge in both Western and non Western languages literatures and cultures this collection of essays provides new insights into the agency of non Western literatures in relation to the West a term used with critical caution and like other common binary dualisms challenged here Inter cultural expertise seldom applied in the combination of Asian African and oriental perspectives makes this compilation of essays an important contribution to the study of colonialism and postcoloniality Topics covered include postcolonial Arabic writing T S Eliot in contemporary Arabic poetry Algerian and Berber literature the English language and narratives in Kenyan art characterization dialogism gender and Western influence in modern Hindi fiction Naya drama in India modern Burmese
