Relative Short Story By Chris Van Wyk:

Chris van Wyk – Irascible Genius Kevin van Wyk,2024-07-01 When he died in 2014 author Chris van Wyk left behind an impressive literary legacy The scope of his work was broad poetry children s books short stories and biographies But perhaps he is best remembered for his memoir Shirley Goodness Mercy which chronicles his growing up in Riverlea and introduces us to the colourful characters who helped to shape his life and inform the stories he wrote The public persona of this witty and wise raconteur was well known but behind it was a family man who liked nothing better than to spend time with his two sons Kevin and Karl his wife and childhood sweetheart Kathy and the friends and family who were his primary sources of inspiration Using the unique vantage point of oldest son Kevin van Wyk s astute observations of his father and the strong bond they enjoyed throughout Chris s life have resulted in a memoir that is as affectionate as it is entertaining In taking us behind the scenes into the Van Wyk household we witness the inner workings of the mind of a storyteller from the flowering of his father s activism wit and wisdom to the sources of his occasional quirky outbursts If storytelling runs in the genes Kevin may just be proof that his father s spirit lives on

Shirley, Goodness and Mercy Chris van Wyk,2015-04-01 Shirley Goodness Mercy is a heart warming yet compellingly honest story about a young boy growing up in Newclare Coronationville and Riverlea during the apartheid era Despite Van Wyk s later becoming involved in the struggle this is not a book about racial politics Instead it is a delightful account of one boy s special relationship with the relatives friends and neighbours who made up his community and of the important coping role laughter and humour played during the years he spent in bleak and dusty townships In Shirley Goodness Mercy Chris van Wyk poet novelist and short story writer had created a truly remarkable work at once both thought provoking and vastly entertaining

Identities Leon De Kock,Peter Southey,2002 Who are we and how do we define ourselves This may seem a simple question but in South Africa over the past few decades the issue of identity has been the source of much conflict deep suffering and ultimately liberation

Post-Traumatic: South African Short Stories Chris van Wyk,Vagn Plenge,2008-12-25 The contributors of this anthology make up a wide spectrum of South Africans black white men and women established and budding who write in either English or Afrikaans Among these are writers who began their careers in the fifties George Weideman to those who were active in the black consciousness period of the seventies Achmat Dangor Chris van Wyk Maropodi Mapalakyane through to writers who first appeared in print in the eighties and nineties Rayda Jacobs Finuala Dowling Zachariah Raphola Roshila Nair Roy Blumenthal Allan Kolski Horwitz While many of the writers in this anthology have established themselves as poets novelists dramatists and oral storytellers they all choose the short story as another means of expressing a diverse South Africa of rural and urban life white suburbia black township childhood love hate reconciliation the grim as well as the funny that make up the tapestry of a country as it used to be and as it is today

The Short Story in South Africa Rebecca Fasselt,Corinne Sandwith,2022-03-24 This book considers the key critical interventions on short story writing in South Africa written in English since the year 2000 The short story genre whilst often marginalised in national literary canons has been central to the trajectory of literary history in South Africa In recent years the short story has undergone a significant renaissance with new collections and young writers making a significant impact on the contemporary literary scene and subgenres such as speculative fiction erotic fiction flash fiction and queer fiction expanding rapidly in popularity This book examines the role of the short story genre in reflecting or championing new developments in South African writing and the ways in which traditional boundaries and definitions of the short story in South Africa have been reimaged in the present Drawing together a range of critical interventions including scholarly articles interviews and personal reflective pieces the volume traces some of the aesthetic and thematic continuities and discontinuities in the genre and sheds new light on questions of literary form Finally the book considers the place of the short story in twenty first century writing and interrogates the ways in which the short story form may contribute to or recast ideas of the post apartheid or post transitional The perfect guide to contemporary short story writing in South Africa this book will be essential reading for researchers of African literature

Like Family Ena Jansen, 2019-04-01 An analytic and historical perspective of literary texts to understand the position of domestic workers in South Africa More than a million black South African women are domestic workers Precariously situated between urban and rural areas rich and poor white and black these women are at once intimately connected and at a distant remove from the families they serve Ena Jansen shows that domestic worker relations in South Africa were shaped by the institution of slavery establishing social hierarchies and patterns of behavior that persist today To support her argument Jansen examines the representation of domestic workers in a diverse range of texts in English and Afrikaans Authors include Andr Brink JM Coetzee Imraan Coovadia Nadine Gordimer Elsa Joubert Antjie Krog Sindiwe Magona Kopano Matlwa Es kia Mphahlele Sisonke Msimang Zukiswa Wanner and Zo Wicomb Like Family is an updated version of the award winning Soos familie 2015 and the highly acclaimed 2016 Dutch translation Bijna familie Kaapse bibliotekaris, 2004 Issues for Nov 1957 include section Accessions Aanwinste Sept 1957 Staffrider, 1996 Encyclopedia of African Literature Simon Gikandi, 2003-09-02 The most comprehensive reference work on African literature to date this book covers all the key historical and cultural issues in the field The Encyclopedia contains over 600 entries covering criticism and theory African literature s development as a field of scholarship and studies of established and lesser known writers and their texts While the greatest proportion of literary work in Africa has been a product of the twentieth century the Encyclopedia also covers the literature back to the earliest eras of story telling and oral transmission making this a unique and valuable resource for those studying social sciences as well as humanities This work includes cross references suggestions for further reading and a comprehensive index Critical Engagements on African Literature Abba A. Abba, Benedictus C. Nwachukwu, 2019-09-24 Beyond the critical examination of Isidore Diala s award winning poetry and drama the essays in this collection offer fresh insights on the complex methodological and theoretical patterns underlying the readings of African literary landscapes This is the first book to devote considerable attention to the study of Diala s creative works The Pyre drama and The Lure of Ash poetry The majority of the contributors here are selected from among the finest of Diala s former teachers colleagues and students who know him very closely The collection addresses fertile areas of African literary expression such as the relationship between literature and national history African ritual aesthetics affirmation denial and ambivalence as products of social constructions and exile migration and home coming Contributions also explore poetry and poetic truths semiotics anticolonial revolutions and postcolonial implosions oil politics discontent and militancy and feminism and gender politics The book stands out among its peers and offers great insights to scholars researchers and teachers working in the fields of African literature cultures and aesthetics Modern South African Stories Stephen Gray,2002 Writing in South Africa After the End of Apartheid and Other Essays Claude Féral,2002 Upstream ,1989 Springbok Rugby Chris Greyvenstein,1995 Research in African Literatures ,2000 Vol 1 spring 1970 include A Bibliography of American doctoral dissertations on African literature compiled by Nancy J Schmidt The Oxford Encyclopedia of Children's Literature: Smad-Zwer, index Jack Zipes,2006 For much of its history children s literature has been overlooked or looked down on by scholars But in recent years children s literature has assumed greater importance as literary critics psychologists anthropologists and historians have begun to discover what children and parents have known for centuries that this is a literature of extraordinary richness depth and delight The Encyclopedia captures and elucidates this richness in four volumes and 3 200 signed entries It offers comprehensive coverage of children s literature from medieval chapbooks of moral instruction for children to J K Rowling s immensely popular Harry Potter books Unlike other references the Encyclopedia not only documents but also interprets every work major and minor that has played a role in the history of children s literature in the world General essays illuminate prominent trends themes genres and the traditions of children s literature in many countries In addition the Encyclopedia provides biographies of important writers as well as extensive coverage of illustrators with numerous examples of their work Sociocultural developments such as the impact of toys films animation the Internet literacy libraries and librarians censorship the multicultural expansion of the field and other issues related to the appreciation and dissemination of children s literature are also addressed While the Encyclopedia concentrates on the tradition known best by its readership it also covers the international development of children s literature and offers an unprecedented treatment of works from Australia Canada New Zealand India Pakistan African countries and other nations Its over 800 distinguished contributors come from around the world and include such renowned scholars and writers as Gillian Avery Peter Hunt Klaus Doderer Hansa Heino Ewers Jean Perrot Denise Escarpit Brian Alderson and Betsy Gould Hearne A Z organization accessible writing plentiful illustrations cross references bibliographies a comprehensive index and a systematic outline make the Encyclopedia an invaluable and easy to use research reference To the Point News in Depth ,1980 Financial Mail ,2006-11 Christian Companion ,1906 The Listener ,1979 A weekly publication established by the
