

Motivational Speech

by Jasmien Wijngaarde

MPA6 Alumna

Good evening, Members of the Institute, MPA 9 students, Ladies and gentlemen,

I am very pleased to be speaking to you today on behalf of the MPA Alumni. I hope that you feel as excited as I am to be part of this great moment. I'd like to draw your attention for a few minutes to share with you how important this day is to all of us.

I was asked by FHR to do a motivational speech and asked myself why, because I didn't graduate with a distinction, I had an overall score of 7.6; and saw my name only once on the grades cup (that's a cup where you get your name printed on, every time you score the highest grade for an exam), It is something to look forward to. To be honest, I only scored a high grade that time because the class really liked the professor. I could be restless in class, asked all kinds of questions and I liked to have fun.

Then I thought about the fact that I never had to do a resit for an exam, I was always driven and tried to study very hard (despite the fact that I didn't always keep to the "4 hours study a day" rule of Mr. LiMaPo). In my mind I went back to my graduation day, March 29th 2014, an exciting day that finally came. That day I fell, and hit my head badly around 3 o'clock in the afternoon. I was rushed to the emergency room with deep cuts and bruises on my forehead. We had to be at the institute at 5 O'clock for our graduation pictures (I'm not in any of them...)

I called Charissa, our program manager, and told her that I would still attend the ceremony in time to do the graduation speech. Yeah, I was the one who was scheduled to do the graduation speech and it had to be me in the emergency room. I left the emergency room at 6, hurried over to my house, applied make-up on only half of my face and rushed to FHR with 4 bandages on my head to do my speech.

Banks,2009-03-26

Consciousness has long been a subject of interest in philosophy and religion but only relatively recently has it become subject to scientific investigation Now more than ever before we are beginning to understand this mental state Developmental psychologists understand when we first develop a sense of self neuropsychologists see which parts of the brain activate when we think about ourselves and which parts of the brain control that awareness Cognitive scientists have mapped the circuitry that allows machines to have some form of self awareness and neuroscientists investigate similar circuitry in the human brain Research that once was separate inquiries in discreet disciplines is converging List serves and small conferences focused on consciousness are proliferating New journals have emerged in this field A huge number of monographs and edited treatises have recently been published on consciousness but there is no recognized entry point to the field no comprehensive summary This encyclopedia is that reference Organized alphabetically by topic coverage encompasses a summary of major research and scientific thought regarding the nature of consciousness the neural circuitry involved how the brain body and world interact and our understanding of subjective states The work includes contributions covering neuroscience psychology philosophy and artificial intelligence to provide a comprehensive backdrop to recent and ongoing investigations into the nature of conscious experience from a philosophical psychological and biological perspective Healing Is a Choice

Stephen Arterburn, 2011-11-07 DO YOU WANT TO GET WELL The power to heal physically mentally emotionally spiritually is in God s hands But the choice to be healed is yours Everyone at some level needs healing You may have prayed for healing many times for many years Perhaps you have lived with your brokenness so long that you have become accustomed to it Maybe you wonder just when God is going to take all the hurt away He can But you also must choose to let the hurt go and let the healing begin In this special edition of Healing Is a Choice author Stephen Arterburn offers a unique combination of book and workbook outlining ten choices crucial to receiving healing Embracing these choices means rejecting the lies we often tell ourselves These are not hoops God requires you to jump through to earn your miracle they form instead the journey He desires for you He can and will walk with you But you must put one foot in front of the other and choose to let the hurt go and let the healing begin His Word affirms that God wants us to experience His healing but many times we make choices that stand in the way Healing Is a Choice is a helpful resource that lays out the path of healing God s way JACK HAYFORD
