Writing in Film Studies, from Professional Practice to Practical Pedagogy Bryan Mead, 2024-01-09 A common refrain heard from instructors in offices across the world is that students have a hard time producing quality written discourse This is no different in the world of film studies where many undergraduate students struggle to cogently discuss the films they watch in class How can film instructors help students become better writers This book answers this question by first uncovering the disciplinary expectations we have for students and then offering strategies to explicitly teach those expectations in the classroom This book examines and identifies the disciplinary conventions of professional film studies discourse along with the expectations we have for student writing in undergraduate film courses What becomes clear from this analysis is that the pedagogical expectations we have for students are aligned with and shaped by professional writing in the discipline It helps to uncover the argument types instructors take for granted and helps those teaching undergraduate students not only to know what those expectations are but also how to use that knowledge to foster better student writing How to Write a BA Thesis Charles Lipson,2007-12-01 The senior thesis is the capstone of a college education but writing one can be a daunting prospect Students need to choose their own topic and select the right adviser Then they need to work steadily for several months as they research write and manage a major independent project Now there s a mentor to help How to Write a BA Thesis is a practical friendly guide written by Charles Lipson an experienced professor who has guided hundreds of students through the thesis writing process This book offers step by step advice on how to turn a vague idea into a clearly defined proposal then a draft paper and ultimately a polished thesis Lipson also tackles issues beyond the classroom from good work habits to coping with personal problems that interfere with research and writing Filled with examples and easy to use highlighted tips the book also includes handy time schedules that show when to begin various tasks and how much time to spend on each Convenient checklists remind students which steps need special attention and a detailed appendix filled with examples shows how to use the three main citation systems in the humanities and social sciences MLA APA and Chicago How to Write a BA Thesis will help students work more comfortably and effectively on their own and with their advisers Its clear guidelines and sensible advice make it the perfect text for thesis workshops Students and their advisers will refer again and again to this invaluable resource From choosing a topic to preparing the final paper How to Write a BA Thesis helps students turn a daunting prospect into a remarkable achievement World on Film Martha P. Nochimson,2011-09-23 This uniquely engaging and lively textbook provides a comprehensive introduction to international film from the golden age of European cinema to the contemporary blockbusters of India and Asia and the post World War II emergence of global film culture Offers an overview of film culture in European countries such as France Sweden and Spain as well as Africa Hong Kong China and India in a clear and conversational style to engage the student reader Provides a detailed exploration of the impact of globalization on international cinema Includes a comprehensive companion website www.wiley.com/go/worldonfilm with an expansive gallery of film stills also found in the text plus access to sample syllabi for faculty and a detailed FAQ Addresses the differences in visual and narrative strategies between Hollywood influenced movies and international cinema Highlights key words within the text and provides a comprehensive glossary of critical vocabulary for film studies Each chapter includes in depth case studies of individual films and directors cultural and historical context selected filmographies and ideas for projects essays and further research Engineering in Context ,2009 Teaching Film Lucy Fischer,Patrice Petro,2012-07-27 Film studies has been a part of higher education curricula in the United States almost since the development of the medium Although the study of film is dispersed across a range of academic departments programs and scholarly organizations film studies has come to be recognized as a field in its own right In an era when teaching and scholarship are increasingly interdisciplinary film studies continues to expand and thrive attracting new scholars and fresh ideas direction and research Given the dynamism of the field experienced and beginning instructors alike need resources for bringing the study of film into the classroom This volume will help instructors conceptualize contemporary film studies in pedagogical terms The first part of the volume features essays on theory and on representation including gender race and sexuality Contributors then examine the geographies of cinema and offer practical suggestions for structuring courses on national regional and transnational film Several essays focus on interdisciplinary approaches while others describe courses designed around genre film noir the musical mode animation documentary avant garde film or the formal elements of film such as sound music and mise en scene The volume closes with a section on film and media in the digital age in which contributors discuss the opportunities and challenges presented by access to resources media convergence and technological developments in the field

Practical Approaches to Teaching Film Rachel S. Ritterbusch, 2020-07-24 Rachel Ritterbusch's Practical Approaches to Teaching Film is a collection of essays focusing on the use of film in settings ranging from an introductory film class to an upper division Women's Studies course Drawing on their experience in the classroom contributors to this anthology show how movies can be used to promote critical thinking create an awareness of the male gaze challenge dominant ideology and unmask the constructedness of film This volume treats a wide variety of film texts from box office hits like The Da Vinci Code to underappreciated art films such as Susan Streitfeld's Female Perversions from P p le Moko and other French classics to more contemporary francophone works like Chaos and Rosetta from self-reflexive films that interrogate the act of filmmaking itself to those that draw attention to the phallogocentric nature of cinematic apparatus Common to all these essays is the belief that if used judiciously film can be a valuable pedagogical tool Aimed both at those currently teaching film and those wishing to do so this volume provides practical support in the form of sample syllabi assignments and a glossary of film terms
