the art of love Although Siddhartha despised materialistic pursuits as a Samana he agrees now to Kamala's suggestions She directs him to the employ of Kamaswami a local businessman and insists that he have Kamaswami treat him as an equal rather than an underling Siddhartha easily succeeds providing a voice of patience and tranquility against Kamaswami's fits of passion which Siddhartha learned from his days as an ascetic Thus Siddhartha becomes a rich man and Kamala's lover though in his middle years realizes that the luxurious lifestyle he has chosen is merely a game empty of spiritual fulfillment Leaving the fast paced bustle of the city Siddhartha returns to the river and thinks of killing himself He is saved only by an internal experience of the holy word Om The very next morning Siddhartha briefly reconnects with Govinda who is passing through the area as a wandering Buddhist Siddhartha decides to live out the rest of his life in the presence of the spiritually inspirational river Siddhartha thus reunites with the ferryman named Vasudeva with whom he begins a humbler way of life Although Vasudeva is a simple man he understands and relates that the river has many voices and significant messages to divulge to any who might listen

Siddhartha Hermann Hesse, 2021-06-12 The story takes place in the ancient kingdom of Kapilavastu which is traced to either modern India or modern Nepal Siddhartha decides to leave his home in the hope of gaining spiritual illumination by becoming an ascetic wandering beggar of the Ganges Joined by his best friend Govinda Siddhartha fasts becomes homeless renounces all personal possessions and intensely meditates eventually seeking and personally speaking with Gautama the famous Buddha or Enlightened One Afterward both Siddhartha and Govinda acknowledge the elegance of the Buddha's teachings Although Govinda hastily joins the Buddha's order Siddhartha does not follow claiming that the Buddha's philosophy though supremely wise does not account for the necessarily distinct experiences of each person He argues that the individual seeks an absolutely unique personal meaning that cannot be presented to him by a teacher He thus resolves to carry on his quest alone Siddhartha crosses a river and the generous ferryman whom Siddhartha is unable to pay merrily predicts that Siddhartha will return to the river later to compensate him in some way Venturing onward toward city life Siddhartha discovers Kamala the most beautiful woman he has yet seen Kamala a courtesan notes Siddhartha's handsome appearance and fast wit telling him that he must become wealthy to win her affections so that she may teach him the art of love Although Siddhartha despised materialistic pursuits as a Samana he agrees now to Kamala's suggestions She directs him to the employ of Kamaswami a local businessman and insists that he have Kamaswami treat him as an equal rather than an underling Siddhartha easily succeeds providing a voice of patience and tranquility which Siddhartha learned from his days as an ascetic against Kamaswami's fits of passion Thus Siddhartha becomes a rich man and Kamala's lover though in his middle years he realizes that the luxurious lifestyle he has chosen is merely a game that lacks spiritual fulfillment Leaving the fast paced bustle of the city Siddhartha returns to the river fed up with life and disillusioned contemplating suicide before falling into a meditative sleep and is saved only by an internal experience of the holy word Om The very next morning Siddhartha briefly reconnects with Govinda who is passing through the area as a wandering Buddhist Siddhartha decides to live the rest of his life in the presence of the spiritually inspirational river Siddhartha thus reunites with the ferryman named Vasudeva with whom he begins a humbler way of life Although Vasudeva is a simple man he understands and relates that the river has many voices and significant messages to divulge to any who might listen Some years later Kamala now a Buddhist convert is traveling to see the Buddha at his deathbed accompanied by her reluctant young son when she is bitten by a venomous snake near Siddhartha s river Siddhartha recognizes her and realizes that the boy is his own son After Kamala s death Siddhartha attempts to console and raise the furiously resistant boy until one day the child flees altogether Although Siddhartha is desperate to find his runaway son Vasudeva urges him to let the boy find his own path much like Siddhartha did himself in his youth Listening to the river with Vasudeva Siddhartha realizes that time is an illusion and that all of his feelings and experiences even those of suffering are part of a great and ultimately jubilant fellowship of all things connected in the cyclical unity of nature After Siddhartha s moment of illumination Vasudeva claims that his work is done and he must depart into the woods leaving Siddhartha peacefully fulfilled and alone once more
