media The stories and novel excerpts explore the deeply human experiences of one of the newest immigrant groups to the United States in its attempts to adjust and assimilate in the face of major historical upheavals Displaced Lives Frank Stewart, 2020-01-31 Human displacement is an old phenomenon however the dislocation of people in the twenty first century has been unprecedented At the end of 2019 over 260 million people were living outside their countries of birth Some are forced to relocate by violence wars hunger persecution and other causes and some are voluntary migrants A single term cannot define who they are or why they are on the move For those uprooted by force the psychological and spiritual loss of homeland can be devastating The millions who are mentally uprooted because of war induced PTSD addiction and aging can suffer similar displacement and trauma Through outstanding fiction poetry memoir and drama the authors in Displaced Lives vividly depict the responses and emotions of ordinary people to displacement a devastating and widespread crisis of our time Authors are from Bangladesh Canada Cuba China Germany India Ireland Iran Israel Macedonia Mexico the Netherlands Pakistan the Philippines Romania Russia South Africa Spain and the U S Featured is a portfolio of photographs by Serena Chopra taken in the Tibetan refugee colony of Majnu Ka Tilla Delhi Urban and Visual Culture in Contemporary Iran Pedram Dibazar, 2021-02-11 Streets Cars Rooftops Shopping Centres Sports Publications of the Modern Language Association of America, The Book of Tehran Fereshteh Ahmadi, Payam Nasser, Goli Taraghi, Atoosa Afshin Navid, Kourosh Asadi, Azardokht Bahrami, Hamed Habibi, Mohammad Hosseini, Amirhossein Khorshidfar, Mohammad Tolouei, 2019-04-25 A city of stories short fragmented amorphous and at times contradictory Tehran is an impossible tale to tell For the capital city of one of the most powerful nations in the Middle East its literary output is rarely acknowledged in the West This unique celebration of its writing brings together ten stories exploring the tensions and pressures that make the city what it is tensions between the public and the private pressures from without judgemental neighbours the expectations of religion and society and from within family feuds thwarted ambitions destructive relationships The psychological impact of these pressures manifests in different ways a man wakes up to find a stranger relaxing in his living room and starts to wonder if this is his house at all a struggling writer decides only when his girlfriend breaks his heart will his work have depth In all cases coping with these pressures leads us the readers into an unexpected trove of cultural treasures like the burglar in one story descending into the basement of a mysterious antique collector's house treasures of which we in the West are almost wholly ignorant Translated by Sara Khalili Sholeh Wolp Alireza Abiz Caroline Croskery Farzaneh Doosti Shahab Vaezzadeh Niloufar Talebi Lida Nosrati Susan Niazi and Poupeh Missaghi Foreword by Orkideh Behrouzan Developed in partnership with Visiting Arts The aesthetic sensibility of Iranian culture appears to the West as mainly pre modern if not actually anti modern The fiction showcased in The Book of Tehran is a welcome corrective to this tendency These stories feel decidedly contemporary in style and subject matter alike with their protagonists inner lives and interpersonal relationships at the fore The Times Literary Supplement Fiction exploring the interior life of contemporary Iranians is not well represented in

Devine,2023-10-05 Precisely 30 years after the debut of her provocative photo portraits this book chronicles the early career of Iranian American artist Shirin Neshat In its first 20 years Neshat's work weaved viewers into complex readings of women and power in Iran Yet her images also drew criticisms of exoticizing Muslim women and later video installations were accused of lacking political assertion during stormy relations between the West and the Islamic world Now broadly recognized as a social justice artist this volume chronicles Neshat's evolution from photography to film from personal to political expression and expands existing scholarship to investigate underserved contexts for her work including the cinematic turn and emergent theories of globality in contemporary art Neshat's hyphenated identity was often attenuated by reductive and exoticizing discourses therefore this volume draws attention to her transnational methodologies informed by strategies of appropriation performativity and embodiment while articulating Persian visual and literary traditions Complicating simplistic ethnographies her disruption of neo Orientalist paradigms and representations has led audiences to reconsider Islamophobic Islamism and gender repressions that are political psychological and above all cross cultural This book will be of interest to scholars working in art history photography cinema studies performance transnational and global studies women s studies and Iranian studies
