English Literature Advancing Through History 5 - The Romantic Period

Petru Golban, 2024-11-26 It appears that literary work possesses eternal temporal validity due to its autonomous aesthetic value whereas criticism provides points of view having temporary and transitory significance Despite such claims the vector of methodology in our series of books dealing with the history of English literature relies on Viktor Shklovsky T S Eliot Mikhail Bakhtin and especially Yuri Tynyanov whose main reasoning would be that literature is a system of dominant central and peripheral marginalized elements to us tradition centre versus innovation margin engaged in a battle for supremacy demarginalization and the right to form a new literary system and the development or historical advancement of literature is the substitution of systems Roman Jakobson and French structuralism on the whole later Linda Hutcheon with her system and constant and Bran Nicol with the dominant to say nothing about Itamar Even Zohar and his theory of polysystem to a certain extent Julia Kristeva and even Homi Bhabha as well as our humble contribution we would like to believe maintain Tynyanov's line of thinking and concepts alive which have developed and emerged nowadays more like a kind of neo formalism Focusing on literary practice applying critical theory and emerging from within our own teaching experience the books in the present series are theoretical and surveyistic like a monograph whereas their more practical and text oriented aspect should appeal as a student handbook for didactic purposes in which certain literary works belonging to various writers of different trends movements and periods are analysed and compared with regard to their source form thematic arrangements ideas motifs character representation strategies intertextual perspectives structural or narrative techniques and other aspects

Charles Dickens Donna Dailey, 2013-11 Perhaps best known for the classics Oliver Twist and A Christmas Carol Dickens wrote several books that remain masterpieces of English literature

English Literature in Context Paul Poplawski, 2017-05-18 From Anglo Saxon runes to postcolonial rap this undergraduate textbook covers the social and historical contexts of the whole of the English literature

British Culture David Christopher, 2002-02-07 British Culture An Introduction provides a comprehensive introduction to central aspects of culture and the arts in Britain today and uses a factual approach to place them within a clear historical context Topics include the social and cultural setting politics and society 1950 1999 including immigration feminism Thatcherism and the arts and the Blair revolution language and culture accents and minority languages broadcasting and public life the novel poetry and theatre cinema Hammer Horror James Bond Ealing comedies black British film Trainspotting The Full Monty and historical epics television and radio soap opera crime series and sitcoms popular music and fashion The Beatles punk Britpop subculture and style art and sculpture Bacon Hockney Gilbert and George and Hirst architecture and interiors Each chapter focuses on key themes of recent years and gives special emphasis to outstanding artists within each area The book also strengthens study skills through follow up activities and suggestions for further reading which appear at the end of each chapter A real must read for all students of British history and culture

Biography: An Historiography Melanie Nolan, 2023-04-03 Biography An Historiography examines how Western historians have used biography from the nineteenth century to the present considering the problems and challenges that historians have faced in their biographical practice systematically This volume analyses the strategies and methods that historians have used in response to seven major issues identified over time to do with evidence including but not limited to the problem of causation the problem of fact and fiction

the problem of other minds the problem of significance or representativeness the problems of perspective both macro and micro and the problem of subjectivity and relative truth This volume will be essential for both postgraduates and historians studying biography

New Medieval Literatures David Lawton, Rita Copeland, Wendy Scase, 2003-12 New Medieval Literatures is an annual containing the best new interdisciplinary work in medieval textual studies Volume 6 deals in depth with one of the most important of medieval vernacular writers Geoffrey Chaucer his closest successor Thomas Hoccleve and his most important precursor in England Marie de France

Preparing for Your Diploma Kirsty N. Findlay, Ken Pickering, 2003 An accessible guide to support syllabus work this book offers sound advice about preparing for performance and teaching diplomas Easy to follow topics include preparing for practical exams answering written papers shaping editing and writing a thesis academic referencing and structuring a bibliography Examples of what the examiner is looking for in a candidate common pitfalls and how valuable marks are lost unnecessarily are also included

Britain and Britishness in G. B. Shaw's Plays Zsuzsanna Ajtony, 2012-12-18 Ethnicity in general and Britishness in its specific insular version forms a perpetual theme of G B Shaw's most well known plays The main body of the plays analysed in this book reveal a series of cultural and ethnic differences as the plays constitutive elements comprising oppositions on the basis of which the plays are structured Arms and the Man The Devil's Disciple John Bull's Other Island and Caesar and Cleopatra are works in which ethnicity is directly present as a structuring element The extension of the viewpoint to the more inclusive framework of Anglo Saxon attitudes also allows for a play like Pygmalion to be included in the list of works discussed in the book Britain and Britishness in G B Shaw's Plays will be of considerable interest to those concerned with the interdisciplinary field of language and literature It offers a fresh insight into the Shawian oeuvre by highlighting the aspects of ethnic identity and paradox from a linguistic perspective The book offers an innovative and multidisciplinary approach to the Shawian plays as it integrates different fields of discourse analysis cultural pragmatics and micro sociolinguistics

The Institution of English Literature Barbara Schaff, Johannes Schlegel, Carola Surkamp, 2016-11-07 The contributions investigate the ways in which numerous institutions of English literature shape the literary field While they cover an extensive historical field ranging from the Early Modern period to the 18th century to the contemporary they focus not only on literary texts but also on extra literary ones including literary prizes literary histories and anthologies and highlight the various ways in which these negotiate the processes that constitute the literary field All contributions assert that there is no such thing as literature outside of institutions Great emphasis is therefore put on different acts of mediation

Victorian Fiction as a Bildungsroman Petru Golban, 2019-09-30 Metaphorically speaking the nineteenth century English Bildungsroman dealing with the principle of identity formation parallels Victorian fiction as a whole revealing the completion of its own formation which began in the eighteenth century Significantly the most important and popular Victorian novels are Bildungsromane in which authors construct or rather reconstruct their own life experiences as formative processes This book shows that the Bildungsroman has a development history is a specific literary system and consists of a thematic and narrative pattern. It details the entrance of this newly established fictional tradition into Victorian culture and literature through Carlyle's threefold literary reception of the novel of formation and its subsequent flourishing and complexity. In this respect a number of novelistic works are scrutinized and each faces the question as to whether its thematic and narrative perspectives fit the pattern and shape of the Bildungsroman.

Reflections on / of Dickens Ewa Kujawska-Lis, Anna Krawczyk-Łaskarzewska, 2014-07-24 This collection of new essays draws attention to the various and complex ways in which scholars and critics have reflected upon and reacted to Charles Dickens's texts including his novels, short fiction and journalism. Subsequent to the initial publication of Dickens's works, writers, visual artists and filmmakers have reimagined, transposed and transformed them from the mid-nineteenth century to the present. Although Reflections on Dickens recognizes the writer's importance as first and foremost a major figure in literature, it nevertheless offers a uniquely vast array of approaches to his literary output ranging from intertextual and generic strategies through gender studies, translation studies and comparative literary studies to issues connected with reception, popular culture, visual culture and performing arts. The diverse thematic preoccupations present in this highly interdisciplinary volume attest to Dickens's central position in the British canon and his global appeal while at the same time narrowing the gap between traditional textual analysis and more contextualised readings of his oeuvre taking into account the socio-cultural and historical circumstances thanks to which his literary reputation continues to flourish.

Dante and Milton Christoph Lehner, Christoph Singer, 2016-01-14 Dante Alighieri and John Milton, two composers of vernacular epic poems, undoubtedly hold prominent positions in the literary canons of Italy and England respectively. Both authors have been made into universally important icons, deeply engrained in the world's cultural memory; their importance, however, extends vastly beyond their mere literary and political influence. This anthology explores the synchronic and diachronic constructions of Dante and Milton as such culturally produced icons. The main focus of the contributions in this collection is the production of cultural memory regarding Dante and Milton. The juxtaposition and comparison of the two authors invites a broader perspective that goes beyond merely national contexts as it touches on the question of the emergence of a European Dante and a European Milton. At the same time, the comparison of both allows for an exploration of various processes, namely of appropriating, forgetting and sidelining parts of their histories and politics, processes which the works and legacies of both authors have been subjected to throughout their literary and cultural reception.
