Russell, 2007-04-09 This book critically examines the weaknesses of American intelligence led by the Central Intelligence Agency in informing presidential decision making on issues of war and peace It evaluates the CIA's strategic intelligence performance during the Cold War and post Cold War periods as a foundation for examining the root causes of intelligence failures surrounding the September 11th attacks and assessments of Iraq's weapons of mass destruction programs in the run up to the Iraq War The book probes these intelligence failures which lie in the CIA's poor human intelligence collection and analysis practices The book argues that none of the post 9/11 intelligence reforms have squarely addressed these root causes of strategic intelligence failure and it recommends measures for redressing these dangerous vulnerabilities in American security

Sharpening Her Pen Sidney L. Sonderegard, 2002-08 Sharpening Her Pen demonstrates how six early modern authors exploit or evade a rhetorical discourse founded upon images tropes and dialectics of violence to secure authorization for their work as writers and empowerment for the personal agendas
