Unto a Good Land David Edwin Harrell, Edwin S. Gaustad, John B. Boles, Sally Foreman Griffith, 2005-08-25 Introducing a New U S History Text That Takes Religion Seriously Unto a Good Land offers a distinctive narrative history of the American people from the first contacts between Europeans and North America's native inhabitants through the creation of a modern nation to the 2004 presidential election Written by a team of highly regarded historians this textbook shows how grasping the uniqueness of the American experiment depends on understanding not only social cultural political and economic factors but also the role that religion has played in shaping U S history While most United States history textbooks in recent decades have expanded their coverage of social and cultural history they still tend to shortchange the role of religious ideas practices and movements in the American past Unto a Good Land restores the balance by giving religion its appropriate place in the story This readable and teachable text also features a full complement of maps historical illustrations and In Their Own

Claus M. Bohm, 2012-06-11 Dare to take a journey in a discussion to change the face of our financial world Discover a new way to run the United States economy with a simple approach that gives us all real freedom This content will not use economic jargon and complicated graphs It will analyze our system with simple models and theories We will then see how a system of fairness and equality can come from the effort This will be a true revolution in how we view money today and how we will handle it in the future This proposal questions and critiques our financial institutions It says we can do better to achieve something that has never been done before This unusual view of our financial system by spirituality and political morality will identify the hypocrisy of our times It will show and legitimize our reasons for building a new and sustainable capitalism The Athenaeum, 1899 Congressional Record United States. William Heard Kilpatrick, 1923 American Extremism D. J. Mulloy, 2004-08-02 American Extremism explains how at the heart of the politics practiced by the militia movement is an attempt to define the nature of Americanism and shows how militia members employ the myths metaphors and perceived historical lessons of the American Revolution the constitutional settlement and America's frontier experience to do so Mulloy argues that militia members search for the authority of history leads them to a position best characterized as ahistorical historicism in which political interests in the present are given greater weight than the demands of a historically accurate reading of the past With discussion of such recent events as the Oklahoma City bombing Waco and the September 11th attacks alongside topical issues including militia conspiracy theories and the origins of Americans right to keep and bear arms this work provides the deepest understanding to date of the American militia movement      Brands Adam Arvidsson,2006-04-19 Brands are now a dominant feature of everyday life Drawing on rich empirical material this book builds up a critical theory arguing that brands have become an important tool for transforming everyday life into economic value      Sketches of the Life and Character of Patrick Henry William Wirt,1847

The Road to Disunion William W. Freehling,1991-12-05 Far from a monolithic block of diehard slave states the South in the eight decades before the Civil War was in William Freehling's words a world so lushly various as to be a storyteller's dream It was a world where Deep South cotton planters clashed with South Carolina rice growers where the egalitarian spirit sweeping the North seeped down through border states already uncertain about slavery where even sections of the same state for instance coastal and mountain Virginia divided bitterly on key issues It was the world of Jefferson Davis John C Calhoun Andrew Jackson and Thomas Jefferson and also of Gullah Jack Nat Turner and Frederick Douglass Now in the first volume of his long awaited monumental study of the South's road to disunion historian William Freehling offers a sweeping political and social history of the antebellum South from 1776 to 1854 All the dramatic events leading to secession are here the Missouri Compromise the Nullification Controversy the Gag Rule the Pearl Harbor of the slavery controversy the Annexation of Texas the Compromise of 1850 and the Kansas Nebraska Act Freehling vividly recounts each crisis illuminating complex issues and sketching colorful portraits of major figures Along the way he reveals the surprising extent to which slavery influenced national politics before 1850 and he provides important reinterpretations of American republicanism Jeffersonian states rights Jacksonian democracy and the causes of the American Civil War But for all Freehling's brilliant insight into American antebellum politics Secessionists at Bay is at bottom the saga of the rich social tapestry of the pre war South He takes us to old Charleston Natchez and Nashville to the big house of a typical plantation and we feel anew the tensions between the slaveowner and his family the poor whites and the planters the established South and the newer South and especially between the slave and his master Cuffee and Massa Freehling brings the Old South back to life in all its color cruelty and diversity It is a memorable portrait certain to be a key analysis of this crucial era in American history

Ethnology ,1991      Documentary as Exorcism Robert Beckford,2014-01-16 Documentary as Exorcism is an interdisciplinary study that builds upon the insights of postcolonial studies critical race theory theological and religious studies and media and film studies to showcase the role of documentary film as a system of signifying capable of registering complex theological ideas while pursuing the authentic aims of documentary filmmaking Robert Beckford marries the concepts of theology as visual practice and theology as political engagement to develop a new mode of documentary filmmaking that embeds emancipation from oppression in its aesthetic In various documentaries made for Channel 4 and the BBC Beckford narrates the complicit relationship of Christianity with European expansion slavery and colonialism as a historic manifestation of evil In light of the cannibalistic practices of colonialism that devoured black life and the church's role in the subjugation and theological legitimation of black bodies Beckford characterises this form of historic Christian faith as colonial Christianity and its malevolent or occult practices as a form of bewitchment that must be exorcised He identifies and exorcises the evil practices of colonialism and their present impact upon African Caribbean Christian communities in Britain in films such as Britain's Slave Trade and Empire Pays Back through a deliberate process of encoding decoding The emancipatory impact of this form of documentary filmmaking is demonstrated by its ability to bring issues such as reparations to the public square for debate and its capacity to change a corporation's trade policies for the good of Africans

Destruction, Ethics, and Intergalactic Love Peter Admirand, 2022-12-30 Destruction Ethics and Intergalactic Love Exploring Y The Last Man and Saga offers a creative and accessible exploration of the two comic book series examining themes like nonviolence issues of gender and war heroes and moral failures forgiveness and seeking justice and the importance of diversity and religious pluralism Through close interdisciplinary reading and personal narratives the author delves into the complex worlds of Y and Saga in search of an ethics meaning and a path resonant with real world struggles Reading these works side by side the analysis draws parallels and seeks common themes around the four central ideas of seeking and making meaning in a meaningless world love and parenting through oppression and grief peacefulness when surrounded by violence and the perils and hopes of diversity and communion This timely and thoughtful study will resonate with scholars and students of comic studies media and cultural studies philosophy theology literature psychology and popular culture studies

The New Negro Martha H. Patterson, Henry Louis Gates Jr., 2025-08-19 An authoritative anthology tracing the history of one of the most important concepts Black people drew on to challenge the brutal totalizing system of Jim Crow racism This book brings together a wealth of readings on the metaphor of the New Negro charting how generations of thinkers debated its meaning and seized on its potency to stake out an astonishingly broad and sometimes contradictory range of ideological positions It features dozens of newly unearthed pieces by major figures such as W E B Du Bois Charles S Johnson and Drusilla Dunjee Houston as well as writings from Cuba the US Virgin Islands Dominica France Sierra Leone South Africa colonial Zimbabwe and the United States Demonstrating how this evocative and supremely protean concept predates its popularization in Alain Locke's 1925 anthology of the same name The New Negro takes readers from its beginnings as a response to Henry Grady's famous New South address in 1886 through the Harlem Renaissance and the New Deal Opening a fascinating window into a largely unexplored chapter in African American Afro Latin American and African intellectual history this groundbreaking anthology includes writings by Gwendolyn Bennett Marita Bonner John Edward Bruce Bruce Grit Nannie Helen Burroughs Charles W Chesnutt James Bertram Clarke Jos Clarana Jaime Gil Anna Julia Cooper Alexander Crummell Countee Cullen Alice Dunbar Nelson Marcus Garvey Hubert Harrison Langston Hughes Zora Neale Hurston D Hamilton Jackson Fenton Johnson Claude McKay Oscar Micheaux Jeanne Jane Nardal Jean Toomer Gustavo Urrutia Booker T Washington Dorothy West Ruth Whitehead Whaley Fannie Barrier Williams Carter G Woodson and a host of others

Expressions of Identity Dr Kevin Hetherington, 1998-09-14 This innovative book sets out to question what we understand by the term new social movements By examining a range of issues associated with identity politics and alternative lifestyles the author challenges those who treat new social movements as instances of wider social change while often ignoring their more local and dispersed importance This book questions what it means to adopt an identity that is organised around issues of expressivism and offers a series of non reductionist ways of looking at identity politics Hetherington analyzes expressive identities through issues of performance spaces of identity and the occasion This important work shows how the significance of identity politics are at once local plural situated and topologically complex A People's Guide to Richmond and Central Virginia Melissa Dawn Ooten, Jason Michael Sawyer, 2023-11-07 An expansive guide for resistance and solidarity across this storied region Richmond and Central Virginia are a historic epicenter of America's racialized history This alternative guidebook foregrounds diverse communities in the region who are mobilizing to dismantle oppressive systems and fundamentally transforming the space to live and thrive Featuring personal reflections from activists artists and community leaders this book eschews colonial monuments and confederate memorials to instead highlight movements neighborhoods landmarks and gathering spaces that shape social justice struggles across the history of this rapidly growing area The sites stories and events featured here reveal how community resistance and resilience remain firmly embedded in the region's landscape A People's Guide to Richmond and Central Virginia counters the narrative that elites make history worth knowing and sites worth visiting by demonstrating how ordinary people come together to create more equitable futures The Antebellum Origins of the Modern Constitution Simon J. Gilhooley, 2020-10-29 Locates the origins of the modern sense of a Founder's Constitution in Antebellum debates over slavery in the nation's capital

The CASSIA Spy Ring in World War II Austria C. Turner, 2017-10-12 After Hitler annexed Austria in 1938 the Gestapo began silencing critics Many were shipped to concentration camps those deemed most dangerous to the Reich were executed Yet a few slipped through the Gestapo's net and organized resistance cells One group codenamed CASSIA became America's most effective spy ring in Austria during World War II This first full length account of CASSIA describes its contributions to the Allied war effort including reports on the V 2 missile Nazi death camps and advanced combat aircraft and tanks before a catastrophic intelligence failure sent key members to the guillotine firing squad or gas chamber The Morning Star and Free Baptist, 1898
