The Works of the British Dramatists ... Selected from the Best Editions, with ... Notes, Biographies, and a Historical Introduction Sir John Scott Keltie,1870      Implementing New Business Models in For-Profit and Non-Profit Organizations: Technologies and Applications Chen, Te Fu,2010-12-31 As technology continues to evolve existing business models become limited with respect to complexity and speed Accordingly significant transformation has shaped the economy and business environments in recent decades Implementing New Business Models in For Profit and Non Profit Organizations Technologies and Applications provides relevant theoretical frameworks and the latest empirical research findings on a new platform of business models and then explores the relationship between the new Business 2 0 alliance and Web 2 0      Fictions of Friendship in the Eighteenth-Century Novel Bryan Mangano,2017-07-19 This book explores the reciprocal influence of friendship ideals and narrative forms in eighteenth century British fiction It examines how various novelists from Samuel Richardson to Mary Shelley drew upon classical and early modern conceptions of true amity as a model of collaborative pedagogy Analyzing authors their professional circumstances and their audiences the study shows how the rhetoric of friendship became a means of paying deference to the increasing power of readerships while it also served as a semi covert means to persuade resistant readers and confront aesthetic and moral debates head on The study contributes to an understanding of gender roles in the early history of the novel by disclosing the constant interplay between male and female models of amity It demonstrates that this gendered dialogue shaped the way novelists imagined character interiority reconciled with the commercial aspects of writing and engaged mixed sex audiences      Churchill's Angel Nicoletta Maggi,2025-10-30 Her name was Hazel Smith but everyone called her Jicky Whether it was a cover name or affectation she never said but it was also the name of her favourite perfume from the historic French perfume house Guerlain established in Paris in 1800 Born into a well to do family she grew up in Hertfordshire enjoying the privileged life of a magnificent country house and domestic servants In Paris Jicky worked for the British Embassy in those tumultuous days leading up to the outbreak of the Second World War operating as an undercover agent playing an important role in the intelligence community for the SIS MI6 After war broke out Jicky displayed extraordinary courage and suffered for her loyalty to the cause At one point she was captured and tortured by the Nazis she was pregnant at the time Her partner was a member of the French resistance but she did not betray him or her country Among her tasks she used her previous education in graphology to decipher the personality of subjects under surveillance by means of handwriting analysis One of her professors was a disciple of Jung who trained her in the techniques of psychoanalysis for divining truth and lies She was even an expert in homing pigeons the unit known as MI14 After the war she moved to a small town in Italy taking her secrets with her and her undiminished passion for life This is her story      Handbook of Child Psychology, Theoretical Models of Human Development William Damon,Richard M. Lerner,2006-05-19 Part of the authoritative four volume reference that spans the entire field of child development and has set the standard against which all other scholarly references are compared Updated and revised to reflect the new developments in the field the Handbook of Child Psychology Sixth Edition contains new chapters on such topics as spirituality social understanding and non verbal communication Volume 1 Theoretical Models of Human Development edited by Richard M Lerner Tufts University explores a variety of theoretical approaches including life span life course theories socio culture theories structural theories object relations theories and diversity and development theories New chapters cover phenomenology and ecological systems theory positive youth development and religious and spiritual development Contemporary English-Language Indian Children's Literature Michelle Superle,2011-05-09

Concurrent with increasing scholarly attention toward national children s literatures Contemporary English language Indian Children s Literature explores an emerging body of work that has thus far garnered little serious critical attention Superle critically examines the ways Indian children s writers have represented childhood in relation to the Indian nation Indian cultural identity and Indian girlhood From a framework of postcolonial and feminist theories children s novels published between 1988 and 2008 in India are compared with those from the United Kingdom and North America from the same period considering the differing ideologies and the current textual constructions of childhood at play in each Broadly Superle contends that over the past twenty years an aspirational view of childhood has developed in this literature a view that positions children as powerful participants in the project of enabling positive social transformation Her main argument formed after recognizing several overarching thematic and structural patterns in more than one hundred texts is that the novels comprise an aspirational literature with a transformative agenda they imagine apparently empowered child characters who perform in diverse ways in the process of successfully creating and shaping the ideal Indian nation their own well adjusted bicultural identities in the diaspora and or their own empowered girlhoods Michelle Superle is a Professor in the department of Communications at Okanagan College She has taught children s literature composition and creative writing courses at various Canadian universities and has published articles in Papers and IRCL Animal Models for Human Cancer

Marianne I. Martic-Kehl,Pius August Schubiger,2016-08-15 Based on results from the past ten years this ready reference systematically describes how to prepare carry out and evaluate animal studies for cancer therapies addressing the widely recognized lack of reliable and reproducible results Following a short historical introduction and a discussion of the ethics surrounding animal experiments the book describes correct study design as well as the handling and housing of animals It then goes on to describe the animal models available for different cancer types from natural cancer models in mice and dogs to humanized animals An evaluation of previously unpublished long term data from the Swiss canine and feline cancer registry is also included The final part of the book reviews the lessons learned over the last decade on how to interpret data from animal studies for improving human therapy and gives recommendations for future drug development A Century of Town Life James Frothingham Hunnewell,1888 Models Close-up David Bailey,1998 Verification of Animal Pain
