Strengthening Families and Ending Abuse Nancy Nason-Clark, Barbara Fisher-Townsend, Victoria Fahlberg, 2013-06-04

Strengthening families of different varieties and ending abuse in the myriad of forms through which it surfaces is God's way of bringing peace and safety to Christian homes across the world. We challenge congregations, their leaders and the men, women and youth who faithfully support them to consider their personal role in bringing this vision inspired by the Scriptures into reality. Together our voices can be strong. We are united in our belief that every home should be a safe home, every home a shelter from the storms of life, every home a place where we are supported, treated with respect and dignity and every home a place where men and women are encouraged to be all they can be. It is a tall order. It is a dream to guide our personal conduct and to measure our congregational and community life. We are far from reaching this goal but toward it we strive.

Embodied Memory Anat Feinberg, 1999 In Embodied Memory Anat Feinberg offers the first English language study of the controversial dramatist George Tabori. A Jewish Hungarian playwright and novelist, Tabori is a unique figure in postwar German theatre, one of the few theatre people since Bertolt Brecht to embody the ideal union of playwright, director, theatre manager and actor. Revered as a theatre guru, Tabori's career first in the United States and later in Germany is fraught with controversy.

Maori Boy Witi Ihimaera, 2014-11-07 This is the first volume of Witi Ihimaera's enthralling award-winning memoir packed with stories from the formative years of this much-loved writer. Witi Ihimaera is a consummate storyteller, one critic calling him one of our finest and most memorable. Some of his best stories, however, are about his own life. This honest stirring work tells of the family and community into which Ihimaera was born, of his early life in rural New Zealand, of family secrets, of facing anguish and challenges and of laughter and love. As Ihimaera recounts the myths that formed his early imagination, he also reveals the experiences from real life that wriggled into his fiction. Alive with an inventive stimulating narrative and vividly portrayed relatives, this memoir is engrossing, entertaining and moving. But more than this, it is also a vital record of what it means to grow up Maori. Winner of the Ockham New Zealand Book Award 2016 for the General Non-Fiction category.
