Mortland, 2017-02-10 The Khmer Rouge ruled Cambodia for three years eight months and twenty days After overthrowing Lon Nol in April 1975 and establishing a so called Democratic Kampuchea the Communist sponsored government was responsible for the deaths of as many as two million people almost one third of the country's population Here Chileng Pa vividly recalls life under the Cambodian Communists Attempting to conceal his identity as a policeman for the previous government Chileng changed his name and moved his family to the village of Prayap near the Vietnamese border In April of 1977 after two years of starvation and cruelty at the hands of the Khmer Rouge Chileng was forced to watch as Communist guerillas brutally murdered his wife and two year old son With nothing left for him in Prayap Chileng fled to Vietnam but eventually returned to Cambodia as part of a Vietnamese invasion force that would end the bloody reign of the Khmer regime In 1981 Chileng and his new family found their way to America His simple strand of remembrance serves to honor all those who died at the hands of the Khmer Rouge Houlston's series of tracts. 3 vols.
