Pearson Canadian History Unit 2 Grade 7:

Exploring Canada and Latin America Bert Bower,1991 Humans: The 300,000-Year Struggle for Equality ALVIN FINKEL,2024-09-13 This is a history of humanity like it s never been told before Historian Alvin Finkel builds on the work of archaeologists anthropologists and historians to present the very long view of the history of the human species His focus is not on the leaders whose exploits are recounted in traditional histories but rather on the experiences of ordinary people the 99% whose experiences and activities are often overlooked In the extensive research of many contemporary scholars Alvin Finkel notes a common thread which most historians have ignored the constant efforts of ordinary people throughout history to create and sustain societies based on equality of all individuals Contrary to traditional historical writing he finds that the earliest human communities usually treated all individuals as equals In the histories of societies all around the world he records how individuals who found ways to gain wealth and power have faced constant often successful resistance from the rest From the first recorded communities in Mesopotamia to the COVID 19 pandemic this book features the resistances uprisings struggles and solidarities of the majority against those seeking to dominate The result is a fresh and challenging interpretation of the history of our species one that casts a new light on the true nature of humans Canadian Books in Print. Author and Title Index ,1975 Journal New South Wales. Parliament. Legislative Council,1893 Veterans with a Vision Serge Marc Durflinger,2010-03-22 History has told us something about our war dead but very little about our war wounded Veterans with a Vision provides a vibrant poignant and very human history of Canada s war blinded veterans whose courage and the organization they created reshaped the way Canadians and successive governments perceived war disability and in particular blindness Serge Durflinger illuminates the lives of the war blinded by detailing the veterans process of civil re establishment physical and psychological rehabilitation and social and personal coping He describes how in 1922 a group of veterans formed the Sir Arthur Pearson Association of War Blinded SAPA closely linked to the Canadian National Institute for the Blind CNIB This organization effectively advocated for government pension entitlements job retraining and other social programs that allowed veterans to regain a strong measure of independence Veterans with a Vision captures the spirit of perseverance that permeated the veterans community and highlights the impacts made by the war blinded as advocates for all Canadian veterans and all blind citizens Social Policy and Practice in Canada Alvin Finkel,2012-05-09 Social Policy and Practice in Canada A History traces the history of social policy in Canada from the period of First Nations control to the present day exploring the various ways in which residents of the area known today as Canada have organized themselves to deal with or to ignore the needs of the ill the poor the elderly and the young This book is the first synthesis on social policy in Canada to provide a critical perspective on the evolution of social policy in the country While earlier work has treated each new social program as a major advance and reacted with shock to neoliberalism s attack on social programs Alvin Finkel demonstrates that right wing and left wing forces have always battled to shape social policy in Canada He argues that the notion of a welfare state consensus in the period after 1945 is misleading and that the social programs developed before the neoliberal counteroffensive were far less radical than they are sometimes depicted

Social Policy and Practice in Canada A History begins by exploring the non state mechanisms employed by First Nations to insure the well being of their members It then deals with the role of the Church in New France and of voluntary organizations in British North America in helping the unfortunate After examining why voluntary organizations gradually gave way to state controlled programs the book assesses the evolution of social policy in Canada in a variety of areas including health care treatment of the elderly child care housing and poverty

School Life ,1921 Cumulated Index Medicus ,1985 Alliance and Illusion Robert Bothwell,2011-11-01

Alliance and Illusion is the definitive assessment of the domestic and international aspects of Canadian foreign policy in the modern era Robert Bothwell provides nuanced studies of Canada s leaders and discusses international currents that drove Canadian external affairs from American influence over Vietnam and the draft dodgers to the French case of de Gaulle s eruption into Quebec in 1967 This definitive recounting and assessment of Canadian foreign policy in the modern era fills a crucial gap in Canadian history and provides invaluable context for understanding Canada s present day foreign policy dilemmas The Canadian Baptist ,1909 Creating Canada's Peacekeeping Past Colin McCullough,2016-07-28

Peacekeeping Despite efforts to relegate it to the past what was once a central pillar in Canada s national identity has been making a comeback in recent years Creating Canada s Peacekeeping Past illuminates how participation in the United Nations peacekeeping efforts from 1956 to 1997 became central to national self identification in both English and French Canada Delving into four decades worth of political rhetoric newspaper coverage textbooks and more Colin McCullough outlines continuity and change in the production and reception of messages about peacekeeping He demonstrates that those who produced messages about peacekeeping often overlooked the particularities of individual missions preferring to link their cultural products to political discourses about national identity Engaging in debates about Canada s international standing as well as its broader national character this book is a welcome addition to the history of Canada s changing national identity
